Friends And Neighbors Throw Benefit For Stricken Mother

By SUE RAMEY HOLBERT
Star Staff Writer

Thanks to the thoughtfulness of friends and neighbors, the outlook is a little more cheerful today for a Lincoln couple. Their friends and neighbors have helped them financially in the amount of $750.

About two years ago, Mrs. Betty Goff was stricken with multiple sclerosis, and has been hospitalized almost continuously for the past 18 months.

To make things worse, the 29-year-old Mrs. Goff lately has become partially blind, and is now able to distinguish only between light and dark.

Mrs. Goff and her husband, Harold, of 1041 Charleston, have a daughter who was two years old in December.

One of Mrs. Goff's main interests in life is her daughter, and this interest has been a major factor in keeping Mrs. Goff alive.

Besides the tragedy of Mrs. Goff's illness, the family has accumulated doctor and hospital bills running into thousands of dollars. Although friends and Goff's employer have been kind, he has been unable to meet all the demands.

People in the community previously had taken up collections to help Mr. and Mrs. Goff, and Wednesday night staged a benefit dinner, the profits to go to Goff to help with medical expenses.

Food for the dinner, which was held at the Welfare Society Hall, was purchased by the United Garbage Association and prepared by the Ladies Aid Society of St. John's Evangelical Church. The Welfare Society and other groups also contributed.

A total of $750 was raised through the dinner attended by 375 persons. Following the dinner, Goff said, "We want to express our deepest thanks and appreciation to everyone who made this whole thing possible."

Goff is chairman of the local Multiple Sclerosis Association.

Mrs. Goff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johns, also live in Lincoln.

'Russia Buying Power'

Allies Said Selling Means To Build Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senators investigating East-West trade were told Wednesday Great Britain and other allies, with U.S. permission, are selling Russia the means to build "the most modern weapons" of war.

Ralph R. Baldenhofer, a Midwestern industrialist and sometime government consultant, contended it would be "far better" to furnish the Soviets guided missiles or planes.

Strategic production tools can be used over and over again to make deadly implements of war, he said, while a missile "can come back at us only once."

Baldenhofer testified before the Senate Investigations subcommittee at the start of hearings called to check into the sale of potential war materials to the Soviet bloc.

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), the subcommittee chairman, charged at the outset that Eisenhower administration officials have put "obstructions" in the path of the inquiry.

McClellan said evidence at hand indicates a "very disturbing" volume of free world shipments to Russia that are "indispensable in constructing or maintaining a war machine."

He declared the Defense Department had failed to make available one of its machine tool experts for testimony and said the subcommittee would resort to a subpoena if necessary. Later, however, he said the department has agreed to "co-operate" and that the expert, John Williams, would be available for testimony Thursday.

Baldenhofer testified both he and Williams had opposed allowing the shipment of many presently cleared items to Russia.

Baldenhofer is executive vice president of a Springfield, Ohio, machine company. He said he is now a consultant to the Navy and served in the Commerce Department last year as a machine tools specialist.

Russia Baldenhofer said, has ordered six high precision boring machines from Britain and one, he understood, already has been delivered.

McClellan protested that "heads of departments," whom he did not name, are holding back information on the extent of East-West trade.

The subcommittee chairman did not mention it, but the State Department reportedly frowned on public hearings at this time lest the repercussions damage relations with Western allies.

He said the subcommittee wants to know all about a 1954 agreement easing export curbs and whether the United States is permitting other countries to send items to Russia which are embargoed here.

Adlai Plows Into Ag Plan, Farm Income

From Press Dispatches

BOISE, Idaho—Adlai E. Stevenson accused the Republican administration Wednesday night of failing to grasp the significance of a change in the American way of life during the past half century.

"During that period the Democrats—and not the Republicans—have shown a record of positive achievement in the United States," the Democratic presidential aspirant told some 700 persons at a $5-a-plate fund-raising dinner sponsored by the Democratic party of Idaho.

He called the present "farm price predicament" the result of failure of GOP vision to "look ahead clearly to the needs of the American farmer."

He said it has always been the Democratic party which "has done for farmers what had to be done."

Stevenson accused the Republicans of adopting most of the Democratic program after calling it "creeping socialism."

"Should we call our Republican friends 'me-too creepers'?" he asked.

New Seeds

KENNEWICK, Wash.—Adlai Stevenson plowed up the administration farm program Wednesday and sowed new seeds of political discontent over declining farm income amid general prosperity.

The Democratic presidential aspirant, addressing a party luncheon in Kennewick—in the heart of Washington State farmland—declared:

"This fumbling of the farm problem is, I think, symptomatic of the larger failure of the Republican Party, the failure of its vision—its inability to look ahead to see clearly the needs of the people and the means of meeting them."

VA Housing Probe Finds 'Illegal' Loans

'Serious Complaints' About Poor Home Workmanship Reported

WASHINGTON (AP)—House investigators reported Wednesday a "serious problem" in illegal use of veterans' home loan rights. They also told of "many serious complaints" about poor workmanship in houses sold under GI loans.

The unanimous report by a Veterans Affairs subcommittee climaxed a 14-month, $50,000 study of the Veterans Administration's giant housing program.

The five-man subcommittee headed by Rep. Edmundson (D-Ore.) called in some instances for "corrective" legislation. In other cases it recommended tighter VA action, and it said the Justice Department has not been forceful enough in prosecuting GI loan guarantee cases referred to it.

The House group also took a look at the basic policy of the home loan guarantee program which since its 1944 beginning has provided more than 4½ million loans worth more than 33 billion dollars.

Uncontrolled

It questioned the administration's requiring a two per cent down payment on VA-guaranteed loans when, it said, "other segments of the economy go uncontrolled."

It said the commercial practice of charging discounts, or premiums, on GI loans has grown to such proportions throughout the country that it is defeating the very purpose of the VA program to aid veterans.

It recommended that Congress consider outlawing or regulating the discounts, or combating them by making federal funds available for mortgages where high discounts prevail.

Among specific findings: 1. Spot checks in various parts of the country have shown a "serious problem" stemming from the use of GI home loan guarantee entitlements where veterans do not intend to live in the homes.

The committee said there were several cases involving "real estate operators who were buying and obtaining veterans' housing entitlements on a wholesale basis."

"Typical cases," it added, "include the outright sale of a veteran's entitlement, all parties knowingly making false statements to occupy the house as his home."

2. "Many serious complaints" about poor workmanship are still pouring into the committee.

"The builders, in defense of their workmanship, contend that the three inspections required by the VA are inadequate," the report said. "The subcommittee does not believe that this statement should excuse poor construction."

Gunman Takes $100

At Council Bluffs Station

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia. (AP)—A gunman about 36 years old forced Don Tierney, attendant at Rolf's filling station on West Broadway, to open the cash register and hand over $100 Wednesday night.

The gunman drove away in a blue and white Chevrolet with Kansas plates.

Ike Visits Dixie

Most Republicans Believe He Will Say 'Yes'

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leading Democrats said Wednesday President Eisenhower's health will become a prime campaign issue if he decides to seek a second term.

Eisenhower, vacationing in Georgia, is expected to announce shortly after his return next week whether he will run again. Most Republicans and many Democrats believe that because of Tuesday's reassuring report on his recovery from a Sept. 24 heart attack his answer will be "yes."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), the 1952 Democratic vice presidential nominee, said that if Eisenhower does become a candidate again "I don't see how his health can help but become an issue." Sparkman stuck to his belief, however, that Eisenhower won't run.

'Bound To Be'

"The President's health is bound to be an issue because of all that he himself has said about it," Sparkman said in an interview. "People will be talking about his chance of surviving four more years in the White House. It's what people talk about that makes issues."

Sparkman said he doesn't believe the Democrats will embark on any planned campaign of questioning Eisenhower's ability to withstand four more years of strain his job.

Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said Eisenhower will be "fair game" for criticism once he announces. Magnuson is a candidate for reelection.

"Everybody is being kind to the President now because of his heart attack, but once he gets in the race, the bars will be down and he will be fair game."

Morse Speaks

Sen. Morse (D-Ore.) said that during his own re-election campaign he will be talking about the "disadvantage of having a part time President."

"We've had government by regency and a part time President since his inauguration," Morse declared. "If the President becomes a candidate again it will be the duty of the Democratic party to document his sorry record."

Sen. Curtis (R-Neb.) said that if the Democrats raise the issue of the President's health, the Republicans will "invite them to consult the medical records."

"The Democrats practiced deception in 1944 when they propped up a corpse and ran Roosevelt for re-election," he said. "If President Eisenhower runs again, and I think he will, there will be none of this deception."

President Beams

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower came to this piney woods region of southern Georgia Wednesday for about a week's vacation—and quite likely he will decide what to tell the nation regarding that big second term question.

The beaming President got a warm reception from the folks of the area just 24 hours after getting a cheering medical report from his doctors—a report that in their opinion he is physically able to serve another term if he wants to make the try.

Applauding crowds turned out to welcome him and Eisenhower kept busy waving greetings. He rode in a White House limousine with a top which slides back, the permit him to stand so the crowd could see him.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower are the guests here of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and his wife at the Humphrey plantation, 7½ miles outside Thomasville.

Eisenhower and his wife Humphrey changed to hunting togs within 15 minutes after getting to the plantation, then rode off to the quail grounds.

Exploit Of War Seen

HST Says Ike Used Conflict For Politics

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harry S. Truman accused President Eisenhower Wednesday of knowingly leading himself to "a campaign of distortion and vilification" in 1952.

He declared Eisenhower even took the "politically and morally intolerant" step of exploiting the Korean War "for political advantage," and he declared Eisenhower damaged this country's cease-fire efforts by his campaign promise to visit Korea himself.

In the final installment of his memoirs, published in Life magazine, Truman gives high praise to the integrity and eloquence of Adlai E. Stevenson but declared Stevenson made five major mistakes that lost him millions of votes as the Democratic candidate against Eisenhower.

Truman voices belief that if Stevenson had agreed to accept the nomination when it was first offered to him by Truman himself Jan. 30, 1952, the former President says—"he would have received at least three million more votes."

"Perhaps this would not have produced enough more votes to elect him," Truman says, "but there would have been enough to rebuke Eisenhower for his demagoguery and endorsement of the Jenner-McCarthy 'big lie.'"

As it happened, Stevenson did not make himself available until after the nominating convention opened. Truman says this lack of "a proper buildup" was among the reasons for Stevenson's loss to Eisenhower by more than six million votes.

Truman says his first choice for the 1952 nomination was the late Chief Justice Fred Vinson. He said he turned to Stevenson when Vinson refused to run, then settled on Vice President Barkley—now junior senator from Kentucky—when he couldn't get a commitment from Stevenson.

"Actually, if Barkley had not withdrawn when he did, and if he had not made it irrevocable, . . . I would not at this late date have been able to tell Stevenson that I would support him, and Barkley would have been the democratic nominee," he wrote.

'Mistakes'

Truman says that in addition to holding off his bid too long Stevenson made these other "mistakes":

1. He gave the impression he was backing away from the Truman administration and even accepting the Republican charge there was "a mess" to clean up in Washington.

2. Stevenson failed to use existing big city Democratic organizations.

3. There was "little or no coordination" between Washington and Stevenson's headquarters in Springfield, Ill.

4. Stevenson allowed himself to be put on the defensive by "contemptible" Republican charges that the Democrats had been soft toward communism.

'Heavy Snow On Way'

A warning of heavy drifting and blinding snow and sharply lowering temperatures Thursday in western and central Nebraska was issued early Thursday while the area was caught up in freezing drizzle and light snow.

The Kansas City Weather Bureau forecast center said snow in western and central Nebraska and western and northwestern Kansas would be included in the storm Thursday and Thursday night.

The blinding snow was expected to drift badly and be accompanied by sharply lowering temperatures, said the warning.

Highway travelers especially were urged to take extra precaution.

Meanwhile the western and central regions mostly reported freezing drizzle and mist with light snow at some points early Thursday. Other highways were reported icy and snow-packed, but travel was not yet disrupted.

Roads were becoming more hazardous by the hour, according to the state Safety Patrol, and travel was not recommended in the heavy snowfall area around Scottsbluff. Other highways were reported icy and snow-packed, but travel was not yet disrupted.

Winds were beginning to rise in the east early Thursday with Omaha reporting gusts up to 25 miles an hour and Lincoln with 21 m.p.h. gusts.

Reporting freezing drizzle and snow early Thursday were: Grand Island, North Platte, Imperial, Sidney, Burwell, McCook and Holdrege. Light snow was falling at Valentine and Chadron.

The high temperatures for Thursday were expected to be zero-10 in the northwest to the 30's in the southeast portion of the state.

Airlines Balk

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Leslie Irvin, condemned mass murderer, was being returned to Indiana by train, after airlines refused to accept him as a passenger.

Georgetown County Sheriff Earl Holten and two Indiana state policemen tried to book passage for Irvin on airlines out of San Francisco, but were informed federal regulations prohibit them from carrying passengers who might endanger others.

The 31-year-old "mad dog killer" of six persons was handcuffed and chained as he boarded the Southern Pacific train for the long ride back to Princeton, Ind.

MARY AND THE ANGEL

Stories From The Life Of Jesus

By APRIL OURSLER ARMSTRONG

It was spring in Nazareth. Joseph the carpenter closed the door on the clean smell of shavings in his shop and walked through, and flower sweetness of the sunset. He was going to the house where Mary lived with Joachim, her father, and Anna, her mother.

Ahead of him loomed the white dome of the house. A staircase ran to the roof, and looking up Joseph saw Mary, the beautiful dark-eyed, black-haired girl he loved. She was collecting dates and figs that had been spread to dry in the hot sun that day. She heard Joseph's footsteps and waved.

Inside Anna was busy preparing to bake fresh bread. Joachim rose to greet Joseph.

Joseph seated himself beside the older man. "I have come to ask you if I may marry your daughter, Mary," he said. "I have saved my money. I am ready now to buy the things we need—a goat, and hens and a rooster. And I love Mary heart and soul. Have I your permission to speak to Mary?"

Joachim nodded solemnly.

Anna looked over her shoulder as she patted the dough into loaves. "I know that you love Mary, and she loves you. There is no reason to wait," she said.

After supper Joseph and Mary walked alone through the lane. To gether under the new moon, and the hushed stars, they set the day for their wedding, within three months.

"This is an evening I shall never forget," said Joseph.

"Nor I, Joseph," said Mary, as she watched him turn down the lane.

But neither Mary nor Joseph could guess how unforgettable this night would be, nor the tremendous secret still hidden in the shining stars above.

Mary stood at the gate alone a moment dreaming. Her mother and father had been sitting up on the roof, talking quietly. The hens and roosters were asleep on their

New Orleans Federal Court Holds:

Schools Must Desegregate

Laws Passed By Louisiana Legislature Held Invalid

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A three-judge Federal Court Wednesday threw out the segregation laws that Louisiana had devised to sidestep the U.S. Supreme Court ban on separate white and Negro public schools.

After the decision, U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright ordered New Orleans to desegregate its public schools "with all deliberate speed." He emphasized this did not mean mixing of classes would come "overnight or even in a year or more."

Dr. Clarence Scheps, president of the New Orleans school board, said, "The board's next step will be to appeal the decision."

"The board has committed itself to keep segregation, if possible."

Series Of Laws

In 1954, after the Supreme Court decision, the Louisiana Legislature passed a series of laws that segregated schools under the state police powers.

One act ordered separate schools in order "to promote and protect public health, morals, better education and the peace and good order in the state." The act specifically declares segregation is "not because of race."

But the three-judge Federal Court Wednesday ruled that the police power provision does not save the laws from being declared invalid. The court ruled that the laws were unconstitutional.

Injunction Granted

Judge Wright granted a temporary injunction against continued segregation in New Orleans public schools. He told the school board to mix classes "after such a time as may be necessary to make arrangements for admission of children to such schools on a racially nondiscriminatory basis with all deliberate speed."

The judge added that "the problems attendant desegregation in the Deep South are considerably more serious than generally appreciated in some sections of our country."

"It is a problem which will require the utmost patience, understanding, generosity and forbearance from all of us of whatever race. . ."

A man identified as Chester Lytle of Lincoln, Neb., lies unconscious under a D&RGW freight car at Grand Junction, Colo. Both legs were amputated by the train Tuesday night, and he was reported in critical condition Wednesday. Examining the victim above is Fireman R. T. Mantlo. The man, who appeared to be about 40 or 50 years old, had lived in the Lincoln Apartments at 1121 Q until about a year ago. The operator of the apartments did not know whether Lytle had left Lincoln at that time. Train crewman said Lytle was lying on the tracks when they first saw him. (AP Wire-photo).

Hearing 'Arranged' For Protests About Switch Of Vets Hospital

A hearing on the possible transfer of the Lincoln Veterans Hospital to the Air Force "has been arranged," Fred Eaton, Presidential assistant, wired the Nebraska American Legion Wednesday night.

"I will do my utmost to see you are accorded every courtesy and full and complete hearing," Seaton said in a wire to R. C. Patterson, Legion department adjutant.

The Seaton wire was in answer to a wire sent earlier in the day by Patterson to Seaton and Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams.

Seaton's wire followed a meeting Wednesday morning in Washington about the hospital situation.

A spokesman for the Veterans Administration told The Star a "short discussion" concerning the possible transfer was held Wednesday morning, but that "nothing at all definite was decided."

The spokesman said the discussion was between VA officials, two General Services Administration representatives and an Air Force group headed by Brig. Gen. Olin McInally. But the spokesman emphasized the negotiations were only in the preliminary stages. "Nothing is in writing," he said. The Air Force, he continued, does not have funds available for taking over the hospital and the earliest such funds would be available would be July 1.

"If and when" the transfer is completed, he said, present employees at the hospital would be permitted to stay if they wished, and from 75 to 100 veteran patients would remain. But, he added, the Air Force will have to come up with a "more concrete" proposal before further discussions can be held.

"One thing is sure," he said. "The veterans and staff will be taken care of." The official said he felt there was "a lot of undue alarm" about the proposal.

Vigorous protests against such a transfer have been lodged by Patterson, Sen. Curtis, Sen. Hruska, Rep. Weaver, the Lincoln Legion post, T. O. Kraebel, national rehabilitation director of the Legion, and by J. Addington Wagner, national Legion president.

Patterson said "every bed is needed for veterans." Kraebel protested, "The number of qualified and eligible veterans awaiting hospitalization in the VA system fortifies and justifies the request that the VA retain all its constructed beds. . . ." Wagner urged plans for such a transfer to be held "in abeyance."

Union College's President Hartman Is Re-Elected

H. C. Hartman was re-elected president of Union College for a four-year term by the Board of Trustees Wednesday.

Also re-elected to four year terms were Vernon S. Dunn, business manager and Edwin Ogden, a academic dean.

The Board of Trustees, composed of members from the 13 states served by Union College, held its annual meeting Wednesday.

Other Seventh Day Adventist officials who visited the campus were W. B. Ochs, president of the North American division of Seventh Day Adventists; H. T. Elliot, associate secretary of the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, and E. E. Cossentine, educational secretary of the Conference.

Higher Salaries And Lower Taxes Predicted In '65

WASHINGTON (INS) — Higher salaries and lower taxes in 1965 were predicted in a report submitted Wednesday to the National Conference of State Taxpayer Association Executives.

The forecast, prepared by the Tax Foundation, Inc., said the population will increase 19 per cent in the next decade but personal income will go up 48 per cent. Titled "government finances in 1965," the study said federal taxes may be reduced 25 per cent and local and state levies increased 50 per cent, with taxpayers still ahead on the shift.

Delegates to the three-day conference, representing 27 of 37 state groups, also heard a report on public works by Maj. Gen. J. S. Bragdon.

Bragdon, a presidential assistant, urged that comprehensive planning start now on local public works and said that federal projects are lined up as much as six years in advance.

He estimated that from 200 to 300 billion dollars will be spent on public construction in the next 10 years.

Bragdon said: "Expenditures for vital public functions—for schools, roads, health and welfare and others—are on the way up and will keep increasing at a rapid pace."

Hot Springs Flash Flood Kills, Ruins . . . 5 Feet Deep

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A flash flood that ran about five feet deep swirled through this resort city in the early hours Wednesday, sweeping one woman to her death and swamping downtown business houses.

Floating lumber clogged a key storm sewer and the rising water smashed cars against each other and pushed through windows and doors, flooding shops in the city's main street.

Most of the business establishments, although left with a rug of mud when the water subsided, were open for business in the afternoon.

Tornado Winds

About the same time, tornado winds pounded an area of north-central Arkansas, about 60 miles north of here killing one person and injuring six others.

The torrent at Hot Springs, result of heavy rains that began shortly after midnight, came at the start of the tourist season in this west Arkansas city of about 38,000 permanent residents. Hotels and motels were jammed with visitors, most of them on hand for the opening of Oaklawn Park's 30-day horse racing meeting Feb. 25.

Dead in the flood is Mrs. Hollie Barker, 38-year-old Nome, Alaska, woman who was here with her husband prospecting for uranium.

She and her husband, sleeping in their car at a campsite about five miles northeast of here, sought refuge on top of the car when the flood struck. Both were swept off the car. Her husband grabbed a tree. Mrs. Barker's body was found about a quarter-mile from the camp.

Estimates Vary

Estimates of the property damage varied. Insurance officials said the loss would be about $250,000. Gus Dickson of radio station KWFC at Hot Springs said, however, that a door-to-door poll of downtown merchants indicated the damage would total about 14 million dollars.

Before the rain stopped about daylight, a total of 5.74 inches had fallen, said the National Park Service here.

Cooing 'Darling,' Ekberg, Briton Fly Together

LONDON (AP)—Calling each other "darling," British actor Anthony Steel and Swedish actress Anita Ekberg, 25, Wednesday took off in the same plane for a holiday in Scandinavia.

As they boarded the plane someone asked the 33-year-old Steel whether they were eloping.

"Definitely not," he replied. I am going to Stockholm to spend a few days with Miss Ekberg, before she flies to Hollywood. We have been good friends for some weeks."

A newsman suggested that "good friends" in movieland usually meant romance.

"You can draw your own inference," he replied.

BRITAIN SAID MAKING OFFER TO CYPRIOTS

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Informed sources said Wednesday that Britain has offered complete internal self-government to Cyprus with defense and foreign affairs remaining under Britain's control.

They said Archbishop Makarios, leader of the enosis—union with Greece movement—and Gov. Sir John Harding have agreed on the conditions set by Britain buy are withholding official announcements until next Tuesday.

This is to avoid possible influence on next Sunday's heated Greek election, the sources said. But, even though it has not yet been announced officially, the agreement already is under Communist attack locally.

The accord specifies that in an undefined "transition period" while defense and foreign affairs still will be controlled by London, there will be no restriction on British military bases on the island stronghold, the sources said.

'Punks' Turn Over Small Model Auto

Lincoln police Wednesday evening were searching for what they termed "four or five punks" who pulled a prank that wasn't funny to James L. Wadlow of 6724 Have-lock Ave.

Wadlow was attending his regular Naval Reserve Training meeting at the NRTC on 10th. When he went to his auto he found it turned over on its side in the NRTC parking lot.

Police described the prank as the work of "punks." Officers and other men attending the meeting picked the small 1954 model up and righted it.

The vehicle was damaged on its top and the right fender.

WESTINGHOUSE REFUSES TO HELP FACT-FINDERS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. Wednesday flatly refused to participate with a fact-finding board set up by the governors of five states to study a 122-day strike of 44,000 workers at 30 plants.

In telegrams to the governors, Gwilym A. Price, Westinghouse board chairman and president, asserted management "cannot delegate to outsiders . . . the right to determine the fundamental terms of the union agreement under which Westinghouse must live for some years. . . ."

The rejection by Westinghouse followed more picketing violence at the company's Sharon, Pa., plant where some 100 pickets massed for the third straight day.

Violence Flares

Police said an auto was overturned, cars were stoned and windows in the plant were broken. No arrests were made and there were no reports of anyone injured.

Mayor Michael J. Dunn, himself a member of striking IUE Local 617, asked Gov. Leader to "assign at least four uniformed state policemen to constant patrol of the Sharon Plant."

The mayor, a Democrat, said he felt the "situation is reaching a point where the men are in a nasty mood. Our own police have been working pretty hard—a lot of overtime and not much sleep. We need help."

Objective of the attacking Third Marine Division troops will be first to carve out a beachhead and then overcome "resistance," as the leathernecks did in the memorable and savage real-life struggle that churned the volcanic island in 1945.

As the task force, with its 10,000 Marines and 30,000 Navy men, approached Iwa, its amphibious command ship, the Mt. McKinley, was pronounced officially "destroyed" by the bursting of a mock A-bomb near the big vessel.

The "bomb" was dropped from an "enemy" helicopter—actually belonging to the U.S. Navy—and from the dummy missile emerged a bright orange cloud mushrooming in the sky where it hovered for several minutes.

Gen. Peterson, Ike Pal, Dead At 73

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Gen. Virgil L. Peterson, the Army's inspector general in World War II and a longtime friend of President Eisenhower, died Wednesday of a heart ailment at Walter Reed Hospital.

Retired since 1946, Peterson was 73.

It was only four days ago that the President's friendship for Peterson was demonstrated. After visiting Walter Reed for his physical checkup, Eisenhower was about to get into his car when Peterson's wife hurried up. The President recognized her and called out: "Oh, hello, how are you?"

Then he kissed her soundly on the cheek.

Mrs. Peterson explained that her husband was a heart attack patient at the hospital. The President grinned and told her: "So am I."

SEATO Hurl Mock Attack, Defense At Bangkok

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—The United States and five of its seven SEATO allies hurled land, sea and air forces Wednesday into mock attack and defense of this area.

They were the first joint maneuvers testing the defenses of strategic Southeast Asia against any Red assault. Participants are the United States, Britain, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand and the Philippines. Pakistan and France sent observers.

The exercises called Operation Firm Link will last three days. The newest weapons are being used, including rockets that can carry atomic warheads.

Helicopter Fleet
The maneuvers opened with helicopter landings of U. S. Marines from aircraft carriers that had ferried the men from Okinawa. Twenty-nine helicopters were used.

Simultaneously, seven C124 Globemasters and 35 C119 Flying Boxcars shuttled members of the U. S. 508th Paratroop Regiment from Japan.

There was only one mishap Wednesday. A helicopter carrying a pilot, copilot, and four battle-ready Marines from the carrier Princeton plunged into the Gulf of Siam shortly after takeoff.

The British destroyer Tobruk picked up four of the Americans and the Princeton's crash boat rescued the other two.

Jet Air Cover
U. S. F4 Thunderjets flew cover for the landings. The only Allied planes arriving from overseas were 14 British and New Zealand Venom Jets.

About 650 Filipino troops landed from the U. S. seaplane tender Salisbury at the Bangkok waterfront. Battle equipped Thai soldiers took up defense positions around the airport, while planes from Thailand's new air force zoomed overhead.

Six British New Zealand, and Australian ships took part in the naval phase of the operation.

Rear Adm. Lester K. Rice, commanding the task force at Bangkok, landed by helicopter at the airport.

At Iwo, Too
At Iwo Jima, nearly 3,000 miles to the east, a big all-American task force carried out another operation. Nine hundred Marines, playing the role of four or five regiments of aggressors, dug into positions held by the Japanese 11 years ago in World War II.

A mock atomic bomb, made of magnesium, burst only 1,000 yards from the USS Mt. McKinley, the command ship. Sparks showered, and a mushroom-shaped cloud went up.

More than 9,000 other Marines will land Friday for the climactic assault on the island.

Red China is taking a dim view of the operations at Bangkok and Iwo Jima. A Peiping radio broadcast declared they were designed "to bring Asia to the brink of war." Peiping charged the Americans were trying to intimidate non-Seato Asian countries like India and Burma.

Lincoln Schools Hit By Burglars During The Night

Two schools in Lincoln yielded up money and valuables taken during nighttime burglaries that resulted in heavy damage.

Three Union College offices were broken into and about $175 in cash was taken. A check for $113 payable to the college also was reported missing.

The principal's office at the college yielded $50 in cash from the elementary school department.

At Lincoln High School, two windows in the front door and a door to a teacher's lounge were smashed with bricks. Vending machines were ripped down with a crowbar or heavy screwdriver.

Two gold watches and a ring also were reported taken from the lost and found department at the high school.

Damage to the broken windows and three rooms that were ransacked was estimated at $50.

$5,000 Is Awarded In Car-Truck Crash

A U. S. District Court jury verdict for James H. Wimberly of Detroit, Mich., assessed his damages at $5,000 as the result of a car-truck collision May 22, 1952, near Wahoo.

Cliff Catlett of Westerville, Neb., owner of the truck, was named defendant in the $29,632.65 suit brought by Wimberly for injuries and other damages.

Wimberly contended the truck, operated by the defendant's employee, crossed the center line of U. S. 92 and Alternate 30 one mile north of Wahoo into the path of his auto.

The defense contended the plaintiff was negligent in operating his vehicle at excessive speeds, 50 miles per hour, considering the condition of the road and weather.

Two Plead Guilty To Grocery Theft

Two Lincoln youths have pleaded guilty in Lancaster District Court to burglary of the Garland Grocery at Prairie Home on Feb. 1.

Judge John L. Polk deferred sentencing of pair, ages 18 and 17, pending an investigation by the adult probation officer.

The two men, both married, obtained about $140 in merchandise from the grocery, including cigarettes, cigars, clothes, leather gloves, logger boots, and a typewriter.

Entry was forced by breaking the glass in the front door, investigators said.

City Nominees For Authority Asked By Ash

Acting Mayor Pat Ash has asked members of the City Council to be prepared Monday to submit names for consideration for appointment to the City-County Building Authority.

Ash urged quick Council action "since the inference has been made that the Council is using this means as a delay."

He apparently referred to accusations by county officials that the city hopes to put off the joint building venture through appointment of an Authority which would drag its feet in pushing the project along.

The Council recently passed a partment to work with the county resolution authorizing its legal department in drawing up articles of incorporation for creation of the Authority. Under state law, the Authority would plan and finance the building and lease space to the city and county.

"If the county should pass such a resolution in the near future... the attorneys can proceed to draw up articles of incorporation almost immediately," Ash said.

If the articles are drawn up, he said, the Council should be in a position to appoint its two Authority members promptly.

N.Y. Man Jailed By French; Tried Smuggling Smokes

MARSEILLES (INS) — A 32-year-old New Yorker was sentenced to three years in jail Wednesday for trying to smuggle cigarettes into France.

Elliot Forrest was found guilty in a Marseille court. He had attempted to bring in $94,500 worth of cigarettes from his yacht.

A three-year term also was handed out to Sydney Paley of Jersey City, N.J. Paley, known as "Nylon Sid," was not present during the trial.

State Education Officer Lauds U.S. Overseas Schools

Dr. Floyd Miller, assistant state commissioner of education, Wednesday described the American Dependents School program as a "very unique thing that only this country would do."

Dr. Miller was principal speaker before the Lancaster County Teachers Association meeting in the Hickman High School auditorium.

The speaker on a recent trip through Europe and North Africa visited many of the overseas high schools established for the dependents of U.S. army, navy and air force personnel stationed there.

Color slides taken on the tour were shown. Many of the dependents' high schools are accredited to the North Central Association and would be a challenge to some "states-side schools," he said.

The Statisticians Report

Federal statisticians gave Nebraska a jolt this week.

They revealed that the value of the state's poultry and livestock dropped $118 million during 1955.

The drop resulted from two causes. There was a decline in number and there was also a decline in price. By the end of 1955 there were 20 per cent fewer sheep and 10 per cent less cattle. The chicken population which has been falling off since 1944 dropped another 3 per cent. Only turkeys were on the increase. They are 15 per cent more numerous than a year ago.

Despite the drop Nebraska still maintained second place in the nation in the number of beef type cows and opened 1956 with 1,578,000 of them. This was 15 per cent more than the 10 year average. But Nebraska dropped from national first place to second in sheep.

In terms of prosperity the declines are not optimistic. But they do show that agriculture is adjusting itself to the problem of surpluses and it reminds that re-adjustments should not be forced explosively, a thing that Secretary Benson's approach to the problem fails to evaluate. Reasonable price protection and due patience are indicated, plus faith that agriculture itself is wise enough to take care of the problem of surpluses.

Unostentatious Heroes

It was fitting that the U.S. government gave a service award of merit to its two employees at Scottsbluff—Meteorologists James N. Hosey and Richard A. Brintzenhove.

It was Hosey and Brintzenhove who remained at their post and issued warnings and progress reports on that area's tornado last June 27. It was through their efforts that countless Scottsbluff citizens went through the experience unharmed. Their act was an example of unostentatious but valuable human service of a sort that too often goes unrecognized and unrewarded. It will stand as a pattern and an incentive to many others.

We doubt that the pair felt the distinction of heroism as they busied themselves with the job of warning the community. They were weather bureau men occupied principally by their professional tasks. But they were thoughtful men and performed their extraordinary tasks unassuming of the effort and not expecting any reward. But heroism is that way if it is true heroism, born more of a genuine interest in others than from a sense of self aggrandizement.

Meteorologists Hosey and Brintzenhove have their citations to file away with other memorabilia and Scottsbluff people have the knowledge that an unestimated number in the community owe their present well being to the thought and action of two men. And that is quite a bit.

A Study In Contrasts

Near the close of his administration, the late Calvin Coolidge, breaking that traditional silence for which he became famous while occupying the White House, wrote an article for the SEP. The late Mr. Coolidge in that article wrote that the United States had changed from an agricultural to an industrial democracy.

There are those, including a lot of good Republicans, who insist that the economic collapse which came near the close of the Hoover administration could in truth be attributed to the failures of leadership while Mr. Coolidge, another Republican, occupied the White House and closed his eyes to the deteriorating position of agriculture while industry continued to boom.

report shortly after the opening Wednesday.

"New York—Stock prices climbed as much as $6 per share on the New York Stock Exchange today in response to the favorable report on President Eisenhower's health. A flood of buying orders from throughout the United States and overseas prompted a boom in heavy early trading. The first Dow Jones industrial average of the day showed a rise of $6.51, the second $5.85. DuPont opened up $6 higher; IBM advanced $10 a share to $400; Kennecott Copper was up $4.25. The first hour buying totaled 1,110,000 shares, 40,000 more than in the sell-off on the first trading day after the President's September heart attack. The industrial index lost $31.89 that day."

This is an extract from the INS report Wednesday morning dealing with the Chicago grain market:

"Most grain futures were lower today in fairly active early trading. Soybeans also were low. Around mid-season, wheat was 1/2 to 3/4 cents lower, corn unchanged to 3/4 cents off, oats 1/4 cents lower."

By way of contrast, this was the stock market

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

When the President took off from Washington Wednesday for a week-to-10-day vacation, there had been no official announcement of an anticipated veto of the natural gas bill, approved by the Senate last week by a vote of 53 to 38 in the same form that the legislation passed the House where the division had been much closer. Action in the Senate called for a strategy of beating off any amendment to the House bill which would have made it necessary to send the measure to conference and then final approval again by both houses.

But the dependable New York Times in its news columns reported that the President was in a mood to exercise a veto—that some of the Republican legislative leaders were urging him to adopt that course—and by basing the veto on the grounds that the measure in itself was a "huge give-away" which would cost the American people millions of dollars, Mr. Eisenhower would toss the 'give-away issue' back directly into the teeth of the Democrats. The public, we believe, is not so much concerned with the politics of the thing. In much of the country the natural gas consumer recognizes that the bill stripping Uncle Sam of regulatory powers over gas rates would take millions from the pocket-books of the consumers. It should not be a difficult decision for the President to make. The bill should have been defeated in Congress in the beginning. It was not good legislation and its approval by both the House and the Senate (by an exceedingly close vote in the House) does not change the situation in the slightest. This in the last analysis is a grab. This would mean increased rates for the users of natural gas. In common justice to the American people, the President should veto this bill.

Recent disclosures have brought out that one of the most active supporters of the bill was the Superior Oil Company which has headquarters in Los Angeles. One family, it was reported, largely controls 32 1/2 per cent of the company's 42,264 shares of stock. It is one of only two companies, it was revealed in the news columns over the week end, listed on the New York Stock Exchange having stocks traded at more than $1,000 a share in 1955. The other was Coca-Cola International. Superior Oil of California closed last Friday at $1,110. Its gross revenue in 1955, news accounts said, was in excess of $75 million.

Since the Eisenhower administration came into office, there has been a great deal said in the field of natural resources about the beautiful partnership between Uncle Sam, the local communities, state governments and private enterprise in the development of natural resources.

That phrase applied chiefly to the generation of electricity. It seems, however, to have seeped over into other fields. Less government interference, more dependence upon private enterprise, greater assertion of state authority as distinguished from Big Government in Washington—all of this has filled the air in the last two years. The natural gas bill, it would seem to this observer, was a logical climax to a great deal of the thinking that has found expression in Washington since 1952. Yet the fact remains that basically the American people have looked upon regulation by government as the natural, logical substitute for more extreme steps on the part of government itself.

Before this appears, the President may have exercised his veto of this bill. We hope he does. It should not be permitted to become law.

Russians Want Out

It is leaking out of Russia that Bulganin and Khrushchev, Soviet leaders, would like to have their invitation to visit the British Isles cancelled.

They wangled the invitation during last year's Geneva conference. It was their idea and the British accommodated them. Now it might seem odd that they have cooled off, especially since they not long ago finished a tour of Middle East and India seemingly so happy with everything that went on.

The cooling off, it seems, stems from a conviction that the British people themselves are not too anxious to entertain the Russians and would probably stay away in large numbers from public affairs at which the Soviet pair would appear. Such cold people would make poor sounding boards for Russian propaganda. And, so long as the Russian leaders are less interested in international friendship than in furthering their own interests the visit to Britain promises them little in return for their efforts. Since it would be worse to reject the invitation at this late date, they hope that the British government will get them out of it politely by cancelling out.

Too Businesslike

It doesn't always pay to keep one's mind too much on one's business, although such a course has always been highly recommended. There is the example of the California dentist who was visited by a lady who said she was interested in extraction. When she embraced him he brushed her aside and referred her to a dental specialist. Later when he found his billfold missing his over-attention to his business worked against him. All he could tell the police was that she had six teeth in her upper jaw and eight in the lower.

Gore, Able Prober, Is Still In Action

WASHINGTON — Sen. Albert Gore, Tennessee Democrat, picked to carry on the gas lobby probe, is a young senator of unimpeachable integrity who stood up against Sen. Lyndon Johnson in backstage discussions of the gas lobby. Gore insisted the whole gas lobby investigation should be broadened.

When Sen. Hennings (D-Mo) was called to Johnson's office to persuade him to side-step the Case investigation—Gore went with him—at Hennings' request.

As the hour of two p.m. approached, Gore and Hennings were still closeted with Johnson and Johnson was still arguing that the regular elections committee, of which both Hennings and Gore were members, should not investigate. Finally Gore became impatient.

"Let's go," he told Hennings, "it's after two p.m. and Sen. Case was scheduled to meet with us at two."

"Go ahead," shot back Johnson, "I didn't invite you here."

Gore and Mansfield of Montana will be the two Democrats on the regular elections committee. They can be depended upon to do a good job.

But the most serious problem is Spanish flirtation with Russia at the top and a drift toward Communism at the bottom.

The Franco government has nothing in common with the democracies except getting American dollars to bolster its regime. But Franco does have something in common with Russia—upsetting the French in North Africa and expanding Spanish domination in that rich area.

For years Franco has been stirring up the Arabs against the French. Now Russia is doing the same; so Franco is comparing notes with Moscow in regard to a common policy in North Africa.

At the bottom meanwhile, large groups of Spaniards who have resisted the dictatorship for a democratic form of government have received no encouragement from the Western democracies. So they have been veering toward Communism. There has been deep Communist infiltration among the students, workers' syndicates, intellectuals, even among public officials.

The tragedy is that Fascist totalitarianism has prepared Spain for totalitarian Communism. Under both Fascism and Communism there is no middle road.

COMMUNISM IN SPAIN

Behind the riot-headlines from Spain are some disturbing facts that indicate our billion dollar investment in Dictator Franco, made at the urging of Franco's $75,000 a year lobbyist, Charles Patrick Clark, rests on shaky ground.

Here are the highlights of the pessimistic intelligence from Spain:

1. Franco is getting old and is tired.
2. The Franco bloc is gradually disintegrating. It's split with bitter internal quarrels between the monarchists, the Falange youth, and various business groups.
3. There is uneasiness among

DORIS FLEESON

Adlai A Moderate On Civil Rights

TIMBERLINE LODGE, Ore. — Adlai Stevenson finally got away from the civil rights controversy for a while, but he had to fall down a 35-foot crevice on the slopes of Mount Hood to achieve it.

In the hour-long struggle back to the road and then to this snow-banked lodge, Stevenson and his companions had time neither for thought nor conversation. Fortunately, none was hurt when the "snow cat" in which they were riding turned over 3 times and plunged downward.

This being so, the Stevenson aides welcomed his physical relief from what has been merciless pressure for a week. At every stop the wire, the telephones, the letters, the press have concentrated on the question: Can Stevenson be induced to give assurances of federal intervention in the South which Negro leaders appear to want?

The candidate has refused to budge from his steady position of moderation. To do otherwise, he thinks, is to encourage the emotionalism on both sides which will make just solutions impossible.

"It is reason alone that will determine our continuous rate of progress," he said in a carefully thought-out statement over the week end. Nor did any attack by Roy Wilkins, influential Negro leader, sway him.

Stevenson temperately replied that he had never suggested gradualism as Wilkins seemed to think, and he added, "claiming, rights does not necessarily secure them."

Easy Living Hurts American Athletes

NEW YORK — Attention all those who feel we took an awful licking in the winter Olympics and should send our "pros" to do battle with the Russians:

Dr. Hans Kraus, who helped to condition the U.S. team for the winter Olympics, says that the problem is more complex than the simple act of subsidizing better athletes.

The young men and women of this country, the energetic little man says, are forgetting how to use their legs. They are carried first in baby carriages, then push along on scooters, graduate to bicycles, motorcycles and cars. Ski-lifts are standard equipment.

Kraus has conducted a survey on comparative fitness of American children with those in Italy, Switzerland and West Germany and the results are alarming. The children tested ranged from six to 16 in all social classes. These were the tests:

- 1) Lie on the back and raise the legs upright for 10 seconds;
- 2) lie on the back, hands behind the neck, and sit up without taking the heels off the floor;
- 3) the same, but with knees flexed;
- 4) lie on a pillow on the stomach and pushups for ten seconds;
- 5) touch the tips of the fingers to the floor without bending the knees.

Only nine per cent of all foreign children tested failed to complete the test successfully.

Fifty per cent of our children failed!

MARY AND THE ANGEL

Stories From The Life Of Jesus

and gown. Mary opened her mouth to ask who he was, but he spoke first.

"Hail, Mary!"

The voice was kind, and deep as the ocean. Mary had never heard a voice like it before, deep and manly, yet gentle.

"Full of grace!" the voice continued.

Hail, Mary, full of grace! Mary felt shy, even a little frightened, to have someone speak to her like this.

"The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women."

Mary folded her hands, and she saw that her hands were shaking, and her arms, and even her shoulders. The stranger also saw she was trembling.

"Do not be afraid, Mary."

She bowed her head. She must not be afraid. She knew she could trust this deep and tender voice. But she could not stop trembling. She closed her eyes and listened to what the stranger was saying. He was telling her that God was greatly pleased with her, and that God was going to give her a baby—a son.

"And you shall call His name Jesus!" said the stranger.

Thoughts like wild birds darted through Mary's mind. She thought: "Jesus! He will be my son, Jesus. I shall have a baby, and hold him in my arms, and sometimes I shall give him to Joseph to hold, too!"

Yet Mary must listen. The stranger was telling her more about her son Jesus. He said that Jesus was to have a throne, the throne of the famed king of Israel, King David of history.

"And of all His kingdom, there shall be no end."

Mary listened, but still she had not understood the whole amazing truth. She did not even know who the stranger was, but one question she had to ask.

"How shall this be done?" she whispered. "For I am not married."

The stranger stepped nearer and she saw his folded wings, and knew him for what he really was, an angel.

His voice grew deeper: "The Holy Ghost shall come upon you. The power of the Most High shall overshadow you, and the Holy Child which shall be born of you shall be called—the Son of God."

Mary felt as if she could not breathe. She would be the mother of a son who would be called the Son of God?

"Your cousin Elizabeth . . ."

Mary nodded. She remembered the day an angel had told Elizabeth and Zachary that they were to have a baby. And what that angel had said came true for a letter had come from Elizabeth, announcing that she was to have a child.

The angel went on reminding Mary:

"Elizabeth is to have a son, and she is in her old age! In three months she who never had a child will have a son. With God nothing shall be impossible."

Nothing shall be impossible! Not even for Mary, the girl of sixteen, the girl who tends her father's animals and helps her mother with the baking and sewing, to have a child who will be the Son of God.

For one instant Mary knew that if she agreed to what the angel said, she would know sorrow, and pain in the life ahead of her. It was not an easy thing the angel was asking, and Mary knew it, even though she could not then understand all it would mean.

She did not hesitate. She looked up, eyes half closed.

"Behold, I shall be the handmaid of the Lord. Let it all happen to me, as you have said."

The angel vanished. One instant he was there, gone the next.

Mary went down on her knees, and then lay on her cot and closed her eyes and wept, and prayed.

Too much for her to understand!

She wanted to throw herself in her mother's strong arms, and tell her what had happened. But she could not bring herself to tell her secret, just then. They would never believe her. Her mother and father, still thought of her as a child, anyway.

They would say she had imagined this thing because Cousin Elizabeth was having a child, and Cousin Zachary had said he saw an angel.

Mary lay there quietly while Anna and Joachim tiptoed down from the roof. They went to sleep after their prayers. But Mary could not sleep. She slipped out of bed. She wrote her mother a note, made a bundle of fresh clothes and a little bread and cheese. She set off alone down the long road.

There was one other person whom she felt she must tell first about the angel.

She went to Cousin Elizabeth. And as Mary had known, Elizabeth understood the wonderful thing that had happened, and believed it.

Mary stayed with her cousin until Elizabeth's baby was born, the child the angel had called John, the child who became the man we know as John the Baptist. And as the angel had said, Cousin Zachary who had not been able to speak for nearly a year, found his voice when the baby was born.

Then Mary went home, and told her mother and father of the angel who had spoken to her. She told them she was to have a Son, a baby called Jesus, the Son of God.

And though Mary was afraid they would laugh, and tell her she was dreaming, they believed her, for God had whispered in their hearts and told them. And because Anna and Joachim loved her, and Joseph too, they could understand, for that is the way things are with those who love each other, and love God.

Nothing But Words

Lebanon, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: After listening to Vice President Nixon last night, it is easy to see why he has earned the nickname of "Windy Dick." He spoke of the Republicans' campaign promises being fulfilled. One of their promises was parity for the farmer. I doubt that we have accomplished that. Another was peace. We have more than two million men under arms, 1,400,000 who were at overseas bases at Christmas time in 1955. They are scattered over more than 60 countries in the world. Almost every day we read about some of them being killed in riots or some other way connected with their military service.

Nixon spoke of the honest approach in government of the present administration. Two cabinet officers, the budget director and several other high officials have resigned under fire so far and there is considerable clamor for two other dismissals.

So I have decided that, while Nixon is a very able speaker, he says nothing but words.

America Sleeps

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: At this time the United States faces an opponent far more ruthless and powerful than that faced by England 20 years ago. At that time the English prime minister first announced that his government would never allow Germany to reach superiority in air power. He soon declared the statements by his political critics about that air power were false. Finally, after Churchill's statements had been confirmed and after an election, he publicly confessed that admitting the truth earlier might have cost the election. Churchill soon could publish "While England Slept." After Dunkirk and during the bombing of London we were privileged to read Kennedy's "Why England Slept" with its and Henry Luce's hopes that Americans might be wiser.

Years before that time Theodore Roosevelt summarized his foreign policy as "walk softly and carry a big stick." Now our secretary of state summarizes his policy as bluff to the brink of war and then get the best compromise we can. At times that policy may be the best and a good policy. At this time an official statement that it is the secretary's policy is insane. It shouts to the Soviet Union that we are bluffers. It invites that colossus to aggressiveness and to discount our warnings. It informs our allies both that American foreign policy is homicidally reckless and that in time of crisis our statements may not be depended upon. Walking softly might have advantages.

At times there are advantages in a big stick. Two years ago the President informed us that the Joint Chiefs of Staff unanimously approved a cut in the defense program. Now the President admits the statement was untrue and pleads ignorance and innocence. For over two years it has been apparent to any citizen willing to read between the lines that our program of "massive retaliation" has been upon the rocks; that our intercontinental bombers have become kamikazes with little more likelihood of decisiveness than those of the Japanese. For over five months information has been fed us, mostly between the lines, that we are seriously behind in the development of intercontinental missiles. Now an undersecretary has resigned in protest. A big stick is also being discarded.

This last week I read our President's calming announcement. He believes, upon the advice he has been given, that research and development go on "as rapidly as it can be done in this country." What will he say in two years? Now his "in this country" shouts at anyone willing to try to discover the exact meaning of officialize. Does it mean that Russia technologists have reached a stage at present unequalled by ours? Or that our research men do not equal theirs? Or that budget-balancing must come first?

Britain balanced her budget. Doubtless the city fathers of Carthage balanced their budget during the years preceding the sowing their homies with salt (the Roman primitive counterpart of radioactivity). I am almost resigned, since the present qualifications for a cabinet member include having a foot in his mouth, to the admission: "It might have cost us the election." I am afraid I shall not appreciate Stevenson's

"While America Slept." Nor do I relish the thought that in a few years the educated Hindu may read some pundit's "Why America Slept."

Although I have rarely if ever voted a straight ticket, I have for years been registered as a Republican. In the present circumstances I have gone to the proper authorities and made myself a registered Democrat.

EX-REPUBLICAN

Real Representation

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: In view of the Case revelation of a reputed attempt to influence his vote on the natural gas bill, this writer makes this observation. Limit the terms of all congressmen to eight years or less. Place a limit on how much money can be spent on election campaigns, and we may be fortunate in getting back representation of the people instead of oil companies and the like. There is too much of this going on in both parties. The temptation is too great for these so-called representatives. The only time anyone sees them is when election time comes around.

Truck, Tire Industry Spokesmen Throw Support On Demo Road Building Finance Plan

WASHINGTON (INS) — Truck and tire industry spokesmen threw their full support Wednesday behind a Democratic plan to finance a huge road construction program by higher taxes on their own and related products.

William A. Bresnahan, assistant general manager of the American Trucking Assn., called the tax bill introduced by Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), "fair and equitable."

Irving Eisbrough, representing the Rubber Manufacturers Assn., declared the Boggs bill would "bring this great project to reality on a practical basis with fairness to all who use the roads."

But Rep. George Fallon (D-Md.), challenged the stand taken by Bresnahan and Eisbrough at a hearing before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Fallon asserted the Boggs measure fails to impose high enough tax rates on truckers. He declared taxes on truck tires should be higher than those on passenger car tires. The American Automobile Assn. supports Fallon's view.

Under the Boggs bill, taxes on both truck and passenger vehicle tires would be raised from five to eight cents a pound. It would boost the tax on gasoline and diesel fuel from two to three cents a gallon.

The measure also would increase the tax rate on trucks and buses from eight to 10 per cent of the sales price and would set up a new levy of three cents a pound on tire retread material.

The AAA's insistence on higher tax rates on diesel fuel than on gasoline was criticized by Bresnahan, who asserted that such a plan would be unfair.

"Substantial"

The trucking industry spokesman added that the AAA fails to understand that "very substantial" tax differentials against large vehicles are already written into the Boggs bill.

Bresnahan pointed to the proposed increase in the federal sales tax on trucks and buses. He also noted that truckers will pay more than passenger car drivers in tire taxes because their vehicles use heavier tires and replace them more frequently.

He said the impact on truckers under the Boggs bill would "more than cover" the industry's "proper share" of highway construction costs.

Wittson Reports No Decision On Southern Mental Health Job

Lincoln Star Special

ATLANTA, Ga. — Nebraska Mental Health Director, Dr. Cecil Wittson, said Wednesday night he had "been approached" regarding a post as head of the Southern Regional Mental Health Council.

But, Wittson said, "we have not discussed salary and there have been no commitments from either party" about the job.

Wittson, who said he stopped here on his way to a Biloxi, Miss., professional meeting, planned to leave here early Thursday. He said he planned no further discussions with the Southern Health Council officials.

Asked about a reported proposed salary of $25,000 or $30,000 a year, the Nebraska official said "there absolutely has not been any discussion of finances."

He said he planned to return to Nebraska by the weekend.

The Council representing 14 southern and southeastern states and Delaware, seeks to provide more and better trained psychiatrists for the state mental health programs in the area.

Dr. Wittson, key figure in development of Nebraska's new mental health program, draws about $20,000 a year.

The 49-year-old Wittson has been director of the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute at Omaha since 1950. He was named state Mental Health Director in 1954, and is paid partly from Board of Control and state Health Department funds, and partly from University of Nebraska funds.

The Psychiatric Institute is operated jointly by the Board of Control and the University's College of Medicine.

Dr. Wittson is chairman of the Medical College's department of neurology and psychiatry.

Dr. Wittson came to Nebraska from the Central Islip, N.Y., State Hospital. He served six years in the Navy.

He has said Nebraska's mental health program is moving forward rapidly, and in three years, with the same backing as now, "will be as far along as any."

He is a native of Camden, S.C., and a graduate of the South Carolina Medical College.

Now, All Together!

PARIS (INS) — A Ukrainian Communist official suggested that competitions be set up among the various republics of the Soviet Union to see which republic's workers can fulfill their quotas best. This novel interstate contest was the brain child of Alexis Kirichenko.

French Noses Bloodied Assembly Brawl Follows Race For Rostrum

PARIS (INS) — Poulajist and Leftist deputies broke up a session of the French National Assembly Wednesday night with a hard-slugging floor battle for possession of the speaker's rostrum. At least three noses were bloodied.

Opposing assemblymen hurled voting urns and stools in a general free-for-all accented with shouted insults, and the noise of desks being slammed and pounded.

Assembly President Andre Lefranc vainly called for order, then cleared the galleries and suspended the session.

At the height of the excitement, a spectator in the public gallery fired four blank shots from a referee's pistol. Guards quickly seized him, a 32-year-old follower of Pierre Poulajist, leader of the French anti-taxation movement.

Subdued

The spectator struggled with the guards and finally was subdued, also with a bloody nose. He was taken to a police station for investigation.

A Poulajist, Jean Damasio of the Seine Department (County), precipitated the floor fight by dashing to the rostrum just as a Communist deputy, Robert Manceau, was heading for the speaker's stand from the other side.

The two men tussled on the stand for the right to speak. From one side, Communists and some Socialists and, from the other, Poulajists rushed to the rostrum and the fight was on.

The chamber quickly was filled with a confused din. Ushers who attempted to interfere were attacked by the deputies. One of the assemblymen who suffered a bloody nose was Jean Dides, an independent pro-Poulajist, who was led out to the lobby with blood streaming down his face.

Wheelchair Pair Have Baby Girl

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (INS) — A normal 7-pound, 2-ounce baby girl was born Wednesday to a Redwood City couple, both of them wheelchair patients.

There were no complications and the mother, Mrs. Marcy Taylor, 27, was getting along fine, the county medical director, Dr. Harold D. Choep, reported.

The mother had been a cerebral palsy patient since birth.

The father, Charles Taylor, 47, has multiple sclerosis.

The baby, named Sharon Marie, was 12 days premature, but was normal. Choep termed the birth "miraculous."

Plenty Of Salk Vaccine By July, Says Van Riper

OMAHA (INS) — There should be enough Salk polio vaccine shots available by July 1 for two shots for all children through age 14, Dr. Hart Van Riper of the National Polio Foundation said Wednesday.

If production increases beyond that one shot will be given persons 15 through 19, he said.

It was decided to spread the protection rather than give a booster shot to youngsters through 14, he explained. Two shots provide about 90 per cent protection.

It is believed this figure increases to 90 or 95 per cent with the third shot. However, few children in the country have had the complete series.

Dr. Van Riper was in Omaha for an annual conference of officials of the 13 polio rehabilitation centers supported by the foundation. The center operated by the Creighton University School of Medicine at St. Joseph's hospital is one of three centers.

Omaha Bid Low On Street-Fixer

The Fuchs-Clayton Machinery Co. of Omaha has submitted the low bid of $14,850 at the City Hall for furnishing the city a paving heater-planer.

The machine is for use in resurfacing and general paving repair work. With the machine, paving can be heated and planed off to a smooth surface when wrinkling has occurred.

The only other bid was $17,328 submitted by Interstate Machinery and Supply, also of Omaha. The city's estimate was $17,500.

Heavy Rains Pour Flood Waters Into New Orleans Area

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — Heavy rains flooded New Orleans late Wednesday, sending more than a foot of water into homes and stores and stopping traffic during the heavy evening rush.

Water was several feet deep on some streets in this city, where low-lying areas are below the level of the Mississippi River and water has to be pumped away.

E. F. Hughes, assistant general superintendent of the sewerage and water board, blamed the flood on trash left from Tuesday's Mardi Gras celebration. He said the trash clogged the water mains which made it almost impossible for some of the streets to drain.

The Weather Bureau said 2.85 inches of rain fell from 2:45 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. By 5 p.m. the Weather Bureau reported 3.15 inches had fallen.

A windstorm struck the nearby Gretna area, damaging several homes. No injuries were reported.

Kefauver Tells Floridans Desegregation 'Not A Subject To Demagogue About'

'It Must Be Lived And Dealt With'

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said Wednesday desegregation "is not a subject to demagogue about."

The Tennessee Democrat, who seeks the presidential nomination, told a Lions Club luncheon at Ocala "It is a fact that it is here, must be lived and dealt with."

"The Supreme Court wisely said it is a local problem that will take time, judgment and patience to settle."

"The people, given time, can solve it without destroying our public school system."

Students Greeted

The segregation issue also came up when Kefauver stopped at Micanopy to greet students of the junior high school while en route from Gainesville to Ocala.

A 13-year-old boy, Wayne Saunders, rose to his feet and said: "We are just a small school, but a wonderful school. We are getting along fine and we like it."

"Mr. Kefauver, won't you help keep us this way—the Negro school on one side of town, ours on the other. Mr. Kefauver, won't you keep the colored people off to themselves. Please keep Florida schools white."

The presidential aspirant obviously was taken by surprise but replied he hoped the problem is settled "in true Christian spirit."

'Best Demo'

The Saunders boy told reporters his little speech was written for him by Mrs. Louise Graham, a wife who headed the group which welcomed Kefauver.

Mrs. Graham described herself as the "best Democrat in town." Young Saunders said he made his speech without the knowledge of his parents. He said his father is a carpenter and he is one of three children.

Asked how he felt personally about attending school with Negroes the boy said, "I don't think I'd like it. If we went to the same school there'd be too many fights." Kefauver devoted most of his Ocala speech to the problem of declining farm income. He endorsed 90 per cent parity payments for farmers.

Lincolnite's Estes Park Hotel Burns

Lincoln Star Special
ESTES PARK, Colo. — A three-story, 35-room Sherwood Hotel on main street in Estes Park, purchased last September by Robert Venner of Lincoln, Neb., has burned to the ground.

Venner estimated the loss at about $30,000. The 50-year-old structure had been a landmark in Estes Park. The building burned for about two and one-half hours, Venner said, and the fire also destroyed a small shop next door. No one was hurt in the fire since the hotel was closed for the winter season.

Venner, who said the cause of the fire had not been determined, will come to Estes Park Thursday. No decision in regard to rebuilding has been made, he said.

Boy Hurt In Fall In Northeast Gym

A 15-year-old Northeast high sophomore was hospitalized with undetermined injuries to his left side after he fell from acrobatic rings in the school gym Wednesday afternoon.

Injured in the fall was Bruce Burbuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burbuck of 2633 No. Cotner.

The boy's father said Bruce fell on his left side while performing on acrobatic rings in his gym class. He was unconscious for an hour.

The extent of his injuries would not be determined until x-rays had been completed, Burbuck said. The youth was in satisfactory condition.

Driver Training Course Begins

A driver training course got under way at Cathedral High School Wednesday when Mrs. Kenneth Dodge, president of the Lincoln Catholic Deaneary, and Mrs. Leander M. Kalin, chairman of the deaneary's safety committee, presented the school with textbooks, a course of study, arrangements for a car and introduced the driver training teacher to students. Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Kalin and Mrs. John Short, co-chairman of the safety committee, were instrumental in arranging for the course. The car to be used is being contributed by a Lincoln car dealer. The project was started by Msgr. C. J. Riordan when he was pastor of the Cathedral parish. Above, Cathedral students meet their new instructor, John Marshall. With him are Mrs. Kalin (middle) and Mrs. Dodge. Planning for the course was done with the help of the Lancaster Safety Council and Cathedral High School officials. (Star Photo).

A Few Words Added To Courtesy Tickets To Save City Police Money

A few lines of type may save Lincoln police a considerable amount of money in the future.

The addition of a message was included on the flap of courtesy envelopes used by police when ticketing cars not registered in Lancaster County.

According to law, the first two tickets gotten by out-county drivers are automatically dismissed. Others must be paid.

But due to the lack of general understanding of the laws, police officials say, repeat violators with out-county licenses continually disregard paying their tickets. Many send them back in the courtesy envelopes with Lincoln addresses on the ticket itself.

This had been resulting in hard feelings and a great deal of work to personnel of the department, Capt. Orren Graves reports.

Because of this, the following words have been added to the courtesy envelopes:

"This courtesy does not apply if you have an address within the City Limits of Lincoln, Nebraska."

Manhole Covers Pop 150 Feet Up; 2 Women Injured

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two manhole covers shot 150 feet into the air on Public Square Wednesday, shattered against the Cleveland Terminal tower and fell in pieces among 50 terrified pedestrians.

Two women were taken to St. Vincent Charity Hospital, one suffering from a wrench back and the other from shock, police said.

The covers struck high on the tower above the five double doors at the entrance. As the pieces thudded down on the sidewalk below, the pedestrians ran into doorways.

Police said the accident was due to a long-smouldering fire in an underground tunnel used by the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. The fire caused gas and resulted in an explosion, police said.

Walton Red Bull Grand Champion Shorthorn Show

OMAHA (AP)—A red bull exhibited by Ernest H. Retzlaff and Sons of Walton, Neb., took grand championship honors at the 41st annual shorthorn show and sale here Wednesday.

Reserve champion was shown by Johnson Brothers of Atlantic, Iowa.

The grand champion female was a red heifer called Nov. 28, 1964, and shown by Dan and W. G. McCubbin of Elkhorn, Neb. Reserve champion female was shown by Alby Schoenherr of Guthrie Center, Iowa.

Sale Manager Mervin E. Aegerter of Seward, Neb., said the entry list of 90 bulls and 31 females was "the finest group ever displayed in this event."

100 Volunteer CD Wardens Organize And Study Methods

An organizational meeting of Lincoln-Lancaster County Civil Defense wardens was held Wednesday night, with about 100 volunteer wardens attending.

The wardens were instructed in their duties and responsibilities, and saw charts of evacuation routes in case of emergency. They also saw a film on how evacuations function.

Lincoln-Lancaster County CD Director Richard Vestecka presided, and among the speakers was Lloyd Jenkins, warden service officer.

Jenkins said wardens should find out about help needed in their neighborhoods in time of emergency; know rescue and first aid techniques; be familiar with welfare centers, know sanitation conditions for evacuation purposes, and be able to organize neighbors to help.

Vestecka explained that headquarters will probably be at the Courthouse, unless an emergency makes use of that building impossible. In case of evacuation of Lincoln, he said, centers would probably be set up at Crete and Wilber.

He said the CD group hopes eventually to get a mobile headquarters.

Sen. Knowland In Vote Race As 'Insurance'

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The name of Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) was entered in the March 20 Minnesota presidential primary Wednesday in what his supporters called an "insurance" filing.

The Knowland filing "is not against the President," said John G. Alexander, Minneapolis attorney who submitted petitions for a full slate of 25 delegates.

"It is more in the nature of an insurance against two things, first, having no Republican contest; and second, having to passively submit to the filing of an unwanted favorite-son candidate in the event of Ike's withdrawal."

No Explanation

Alexander declined to explain what he meant by "unwanted favorite-son."

A slate of Eisenhower delegates has already been filed. Sen. Knowland has indicated he would withdraw if the President announced his candidacy.

However, if President Eisenhower has not announced whether he will run by Feb. 25—deadline for candidates to withdraw from the Minnesota primary—both his name and Sen. Knowland's will go on the ballot since printing orders must be placed then.

Both Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, and Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) have filed Democratic slates.

Expectant Mom Admits Slaying Mother-In-Law

ANTIOCH, Ill. (INS)—A young expectant mother admitted Wednesday that she killed her mother-in-law during a dispute over money in the older woman's home in Lake Catherine, two miles west of Antioch. She has been charged with murder.

Mrs. Maxine Jarolimek, 33, of Island Lake, three miles west of Wauconda, said she accidentally shot her husband's mother in the head and then twisted a scarf around her neck "as a tourniquet" in an effort to stop the flow of blood.

The victim, Mrs. Irene Jarolimek, 55, was found strangled on the front porch of her home Tuesday.

Sheriff Stanley Christian of Lake County and his deputies found a Babusha, blue jeans and shoes with spots that appeared to be blood in Maxine's home.

Maxine's husband, Jerome Jg. 33, is in Great Lakes Naval Hospital being treated for a nerve ailment.

Lower Valuation For State-Owned Land Get Study

The State Board of Educational Lands and Funds Wednesday considered lower valuation figures for state-owned school lands in nine central and southern counties.

The rent automatically goes down as the valuation is reduced, since the annual rental is 6 per cent of the appraised value of the land.

Counties considered Wednesday were Dawson, Buffalo, Phelps, Kearney, Gosper, Franklin, Harlan, Furnas, and Red Willow.

Formal action was postponed until the next meeting, on March 12, because of the absence of two board members. The board instructed secretary Robert Hiatt, however, to continue with the revision of appraisals for individual tracts in the nine counties.

The pattern was about the same as for 19 counties already acted upon, where reductions in appraisals averaged about 20 per cent on farming land, 5 to 10 per cent on grazing land, and 15 per cent on hay land.

A blanket increase or reduction is forbidden by law. Each tract must be considered individually.

Rites Pending For 2 Kearney Crash Victims

LINCOLN STAR SPECIAL
KEARNEY, Neb. — Funeral arrangements are pending for two prominent Kearney men killed in the collision of their car and a semi-trailer near Wood River on Highway 30.

James W. Hensley, 64, retired merchant, and J. J. Fales, 55, rural mail carrier, lost their lives in the accident. They were returning to their homes from a business trip to Atkinson.

The car the two were in, driven by Fales, collided with a truck driven by Arnold Jorgensen, 38, of Fremont. Both Jorgensen and a passenger in the truck, Melvin Buchholz of Fremont, escaped unhurt.

Tow Accidents
State Safety Patrol troopers said there were two accidents which apparently occurred at the same time. They said the other one involved cars driven by Harland D. Hunsberger, 37, of Shelton, who suffered a broken knee cap, and Robert E. Heaps, 40, Kearney, who was brought to Kearney for treatment.

The troopers said as near as they could determine, the crash of the car driven by Fales and the truck occurred in a ditch as both tried to avoid the first two cars.

Hensley is survived by his wife, Eleanor, and two sisters, Mrs. Meta Neumarker of Columbus and Mrs. Ruby Paulus of San Diego, Calif. He was a member of the VFW, American Legion and Elks lodge.

Fales, who had served as a mail carrier for 35 years, is survived by his wife, Ida; two daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Scott of Denver and Jane at home; and four sisters, Mrs. Hazel Tubridy of Alma, Mrs. Minnie Newman of Portland, Ore., Mrs. Mildred Niemann of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Helen Correll of Bremerton, Wash.; and a brother, Russell of New York City.

Midwestern Plans To Call 65 Witnesses For FPC Hearing

WASHINGTON (P) — Midwestern Gas Transmission Co., seeking authority to supply natural gas to midwest cities, Wednesday protested "clarifying" questions asked by opponents at a Federal Power Commission hearing.

The procedure brought sharp protests from Harry Littman, attorney for Midwestern, who said "aren't we getting down to rock bottom technicalities in this case?"

Littman said the questions were slowing down presentation of evidence by Midwestern in support of its application for authority to supply 400 million cubic feet of natural gas daily to midwest states.

Most of the second day of the hearing before Francis L. Hall, an examiner for FPC, was taken up with questioning of the first two of the 65 witnesses Midwestern said it will call.

Many, Many Exhibits
Although Hall said cross-examination of the witnesses will be permitted until after a recess is called when the exhibits—a four foot high stack of them—have been introduced, he said clarifying questions were allowed. Opposing counsel asked many such time-consuming questions.

Various motions to dismiss Midwestern's application are expected to be made by opponents at a later date. The commission previously ruled that such a motion by Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha was premature.

Midwestern proposes to spend 103 million dollars in providing natural gas to 125 communities in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and North Dakota and steel mills in the Chicago area.

An application by Northern to supply gas to communities in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and South Dakota, being heard separately by Hall, is now in recess. Midwestern says it will get 200 million cubic feet of gas daily from Trans-Canada Pipe Lines Ltd. of Canada and a similar amount from its parent company, Tennessee Gas Transmission Co.

Herrmann was driving a tractor pulling two wagons loaded with hay. He was going down a hill when he pulled over to the shoulder of the road to allow several cars to pass and the tractor upset in the ditch, pinning him underneath.

His father, Albert Herrmann, who was riding on the drawbar of the tractor was thrown clear. The young man was pronounced dead on arrival at a Lexington hospital.

A total of 463 students, faculty and other school personnel has been inoculated in the past few weeks. There have been no new cases reported since schools were closed. Before that, however, there had been about 20 cases.

Southeast Has Surplus Of Hay

LINCOLN STAR SPECIAL
STELLA, Neb. — Hay seems to be in surplus in southeastern Nebraska. Baled red clover and alfalfa are being advertised in the Stella vicinity, and both are selling for about half the price they were last February. Alfalfa is commanding a somewhat higher price than clover.

Prairie hay, the natural grass which once covered the plains and is now becoming extinct, has been advertised for as little as 25 cents a bale. Prairie hay grows only on ground which has never been plowed, for once plowed under it does not grow back because it does not produce seeds.

Thugs Discover White-Haired Small Lady Has Mighty Swing

OMAHA (P) — White-haired "never mind my age" Wilhelmmina Linneman is a lady who won't stand for any holdup business, and she has proved it.

Two youths entered her small beer store and growled "this is a holdup."

Mrs. Linneman reacted swiftly. "I hit the nearest one right in the eye with a right swing," she told investigating police as she blew on her knuckles.

"They still hurt," she grinned. When her first swing brought a howl of pain from one youth, the other bolted out the door, Mrs. Linneman related.

The one who caught the punch dazedly started for the door but ran into it and couldn't get away until Mrs. Linneman had swung a few more times.

"I was so mad they could have shot me and I wouldn't have felt it," said the small woman. "But I didn't notice whether they had a gun."

"To think that two young punks like that would try such a thing. They should have been doing their homework," she disgustedly concluded.

'Plan Useful Life,' Reed Urges NWU Students

Nebraska Wesleyan University students Wednesday night were told:

"Not only is it possible to plan your career but it is imperative that you plan a useful life if you are in any measure to live up to your potential."

The speaker was Guy E. Reed of Chicago, well known native Nebraskan, who discussed the subject, "Building a Most Useful Career," at a joint Wesleyan student-public meeting in Huntington Hall.

"While it is important that you know the techniques of any field," the speaker asserted, "it is still more important that you gain human understandings."

"This presupposes that you recognize the purposefulness in life, that you have faith in your fellowmen, and that you dedicate yourself to being helpful to every human being who touches your life."

"In general," Reed said, "your education has been planned for you up to graduation from college. We can hope that your formal education has given you perspective so that you may plan wisely education from graduation to retirement."

Earlier in the day the speaker addressed a noon meeting of Lincoln businessmen, declaring that educators and businessmen have made great strides in erasing the suspicion with which they once viewed one another.

"Appreciate Each Other" "Businessmen and educators now appreciate and understand one another," he said. "They are on a joint campaign to produce the highest type individual and then put him to work in the most useful way."

Speaking on the support of higher education, the speaker pointed out that "... twenty-five years ago there was a little corporate giving to education. Today, grants, annual contributions and scholarships are the rule."

The prominent Chicagoan was brought to Lincoln for a series of three Wednesday meetings by the Lincoln committee of the Wesleyan development program under the chairmanship of James N. Ackerman.

Ackerman said Reed's appearance

ances are but the first in a series of meetings planned to bring prominent citizens to Lincoln to discuss questions of public interest before a wide range of audiences.

Hardin Talks At SE High Honors Meet

"Underlying our whole school effort, it is important that we tend carefully the American notion of individuality," Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin of the University of Nebraska Wednesday told the Honors Convocation at Southeast High School.

The courses of study are uniform, he said, and all study in one environment, many using the same books and having the same teachers.

The individuality is in the students, he said. "You share in the responsibility of thinking for yourself."

Lewis Brown and Jim Murphy, members of the society, presided at the first program of this type held at the new high school.

Miss Hazel Scott, school principal, presented the honor roll which includes 122 students between the seventh and 12th grades.

Also on the program were the Senior High Girl's Glee, directed by Miss Evelyn Fosbury and soloist Mary Dee Patterson.

Truck, Tire Industry Spokesmen Throw Support On Demo Road Building Finance Plan

WASHINGTON (INS) — Truck and tire industry spokesmen threw their full support Wednesday behind a Democratic plan to finance a huge road construction program by higher taxes on their own and related products.

William A. Bresnahan, assistant general manager of the American Trucking Assn., called the tax bill introduced by Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.), "fair and equitable."

Irving Eisbrough, representing the Rubber Manufacturers Assn., declared the Boggs bill would "bring this great project to reality on a practical basis with fairness to all who use the roads."

But Rep. George Fallon (D-Md.), challenged the stand taken by Bresnahan and Eisbrough at a hearing before the House Ways and Means Committee.

Fallon asserted the Boggs measure fails to impose high enough tax rates on truckers. He declared taxes on truck tires should be higher than those on passenger car tires. The American Automobile Assn. supports Fallon's view.

Under the Boggs bill, taxes on both truck and passenger vehicle tires would be raised from five to eight cents a pound. It would boost the tax on gasoline and diesel fuel from two to three cents a gallon.

The measure also would increase the tax rate on trucks and buses from eight to 10 per cent of the sales price and would set up a new levy of three cents a pound on tire retread material.

The AAA's insistence on higher tax rates on diesel fuel than on gasoline was criticized by Bresnahan, who asserted that such a plan would be unfair.

"Substantial"

The trucking industry spokesman added that the AAA fails to understand that "very substantial" tax differentials against large vehicles are already written into the Boggs bill.

Bresnahan pointed to the proposed increase in the federal sales tax on trucks and buses. He also noted that truckers will pay more than passenger car drivers in tire taxes because their vehicles use heavier tires and replace them more frequently.

He said the impost on truckers under the Boggs bill would "more than cover" the industry's "proper share" of highway construction costs.

Wittson Reports No Decision On Southern Mental Health Job

Lincoln Star Special

ATLANTA, Ga. — Nebraska Mental Health Director, Dr. Cecil Wittson, said Wednesday night he had "been approached" regarding a post as head of the Southern Regional Mental Health Council.

But, Wittson said, "we have not discussed salary and there have been no commitments from either party" about the job.

Wittson, who said he stopped here on his way to a Biloxi, Miss., professional meeting, planned to leave here early Thursday. He said he planned no further discussions with the Southern Health Council officials.

Asked about a reported proposed salary of $25,000 or $30,000 a year, the Nebraska official said "there absolutely has not been any discussion of finances."

He said he planned to return to Nebraska by the weekend.

The Council representing 14 southern and southeastern states and Delaware, seeks to provide more and better trained psychiatrists for the state mental health programs in the area.

Dr. Wittson, key figure in development of Nebraska's new mental health program, draws about $20,000 a year.

The 49-year-old Wittson has been director of the Nebraska Psychiatric Institute at Omaha since 1950. He was named state Mental Health Director in 1954, and is paid partly from Board of Control and state Health Department funds, and partly from University of Nebraska funds.

The Psychiatric Institute is operated jointly by the Board of Control and the University's College of Medicine.

Dr. Wittson is chairman of the Medical College's department of neurology and psychiatry.

Dr. Wittson came to Nebraska from the Central Islip, N.Y., State Hospital. He served six years in the Navy.

He has said Nebraska's mental health program is moving forward rapidly, and in three years, with the same backing as now, "will be as far along as any."

He is a native of Camden, S.C. and a graduate of the South Carolina Medical College.

French Noses Bloodied Assembly Brawl Follows Race For Rostrum

PARIS (INS) — Poujadist and Leftist deputies broke up a session of the French National Assembly Wednesday night with a hard-slugging floor battle for possession of the speaker's rostrum. At least three noses were bloodied.

Opposing assemblymen hurled voting urns and stools in a general free-for-all accented with shouted insults, and the noise of desks being slammed and pounded.

Assembly President Andre Lefebvre vainly called for order, then cleared the galleries and suspended the session.

At the height of the excitement, a spectator in the public gallery fired four blank shots from a referee's pistol. Guards quickly seized him, a 32-year-old follower of Pierre Poujade, leader of the French anti-taxation movement.

The spectator struggled with the guards and finally was subdued, also with a bloody nose. He was taken to a police station for investigation.

A Poujadist, Jean Damasio, of the Seine Department (County), precipitated the floor fight by dashing to the rostrum just as a Communist deputy, Robert Manceau, was heading for the speaker's stand from the other side.

The two men tussled on the stand for the right to speak. From one side, Communists and some Socialists and, from the other, Poujadists rushed to the rostrum and the fight was on.

The chamber quickly was filled with a confused din. Ushers who attempted to interfere were attacked by the deputies. One of the assemblymen who suffered a bloody nose was Jean Dides, an independent pro-Poujadist, who was led out to the lobby with blood streaming down his face.

Wheelchair Pair Have Baby Girl

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (INS) — A normal 7-pound, 2-ounce baby girl was born Wednesday to a Redwood City couple, both of them wheelchair patients.

There were no complications and the mother, Mrs. Marcy Taylor, 27, was getting along fine, the county medical director, Dr. Harold D. Choche, reported.

The mother had been a cerebral palsy patient since birth.

The father, Charles Taylor, 47, has multiple sclerosis.

The baby, named Sharon Marie, was 12 days premature, but was normal. Choche termed the birth "miraculous."

Plenty Of Salk Vaccine By July, Says Van Riper

OMAHA (INS) — There should be enough Salk polio vaccine shots available by July 1 for two shots for all children through age 14, Dr. Hart Van Riper of the National Polio Foundation said Wednesday.

If production increases beyond that one shot will be given persons 15 through 19, he said.

It was decided to spread the protection rather than give a booster shot to youngsters through 14, he explained. Two shots provide about 80 per cent protection.

It is believed this figure increases to 90 or 95 per cent with the third shot. However, few children in the country have had the complete series.

Dr. Van Riper was in Omaha for an annual conference of officials of the 13 polio rehabilitation centers supported by the foundation. The center operated by the Creighton University School of Medicine at St. Joseph's hospital is one of three centers.

Omaha Bid Low On Street-Fixer

The Fuchs-Clayton Machinery Co. of Omaha has submitted the low bid of $14,850 at the City Hall for furnishing the city a paving heater-planer.

The machine is for use in resurfacing and general paving repair work. With the machine, paving can be heated and planed off to a smooth surface when wrinkling has occurred.

The only other bid was $17,328 submitted by Interstate Machinery and Supply, also of Omaha. The city's estimate was $17,500.

Heavy Rains Pour Flood Waters Into New Orleans Area

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — Heavy rains flooded New Orleans late Wednesday, sending more than a foot of water into homes and stores and stopping traffic during the heavy evening rush.

Water was several feet deep on some streets in this city, where low-lying areas are below the level of the Mississippi River and water has to be pumped away.

E. F. Hughes, assistant general superintendent of the sewerage and water board, blamed the flood on trash left from Tuesday's Mardi Gras celebration. He said the trash clogged the water mains which made it almost impossible for some of the streets to drain.

The Weather Bureau said 2.85 inches of rain fell from 2:45 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. By 5 p.m. the Weather Bureau reported 3.15 inches had fallen.

A windstorm struck the nearby Gretna area, damaging several homes. No injuries were reported.

Kefauver Tells Floridans Desegregation 'Not A Subject To Demagogue About'

'It Must Be Lived And Dealt With'

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said Wednesday desegregation "is not a subject to demagogue about."

The Tennessee Democrat, who seeks the presidential nomination, told a Lions Club luncheon at Ocala "It is a fact that it is here, must be lived and dealt with."

"The Supreme Court wisely said it is a local problem that will take time, judgment and patience to settle."

"The people, given time, can solve it without destroying our public school system."

Students Greeted

The segregation issue also came up when Kefauver stopped at Micanopy to greet students of the junior high school while en route from Gainesville to Ocala.

A 13-year-old boy, Wayne Saunders, rose to his feet and said: "We are just a small school, but a wonderful school. We are getting along fine and we like it."

"Mr. Kefauver, won't you help keep us this way—the Negro school on one side of town, ours on the other. Mr. Kefauver, won't you keep the colored people off to themselves. Please keep Florida schools white."

The presidential aspirant obviously was taken by surprise but replied he hoped the problem is settled "in true Christian spirit."

'Best Demo'

The Saunders boy told reporters his little speech was written for him by Mrs. Louise Graham, a wife who headed the group which welcomed Kefauver.

Mrs. Graham described herself as the "best Democrat in town."

Young Saunders said he made his speech without the knowledge of his parents. He said his father is a carpenter and he is one of three children.

Asked how he felt personally about attending school with Negroes the boy said, "I don't think I'd like it. If we went to the same school there'd be too many fights."

Kefauver devoted most of his Ocala speech to the problem of declining farm income. He endorsed 90 per cent parity payments for farmers.

Lincolnite's Estes Park Hotel Burns

Lincoln Star Special

ESTES PARK, Colo. — A three-story, 35-room Sherwood Hotel on main street in Estes Park, purchased last September by Robert Verner of Lincoln, Neb., has burned to the ground.

Verner estimated the loss at about $30,000. The 50-year-old structure had been a landmark in Estes Park.

The building burned for about two and one-half hours, Verner said, and the fire also destroyed a small shop next door. No one was hurt in the fire since the hotel was closed for the winter season.

Verner, who said the cause of the fire had not been determined, will come to Estes Park Thursday. No decision in regard to rebuilding has been made, he said.

Boy Hurt In Fall In Northeast Gym

A 15-year-old Northeast High sophomore was hospitalized with undetermined injuries to his left side after he fell from acrobatic rings in the school gym Wednesday afternoon.

Injured in the fall was Bruce Burbuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burbuck of 2633 No. Cotner.

The boy's father said Bruce fell on his left side while performing on acrobatic rings in his gym class. He was unconscious for an hour.

The extent of his injuries would not be determined until x-rays had been completed, Burbuck said. The youth was in satisfactory condition.

Driver Training Course Begins

A driver training course got under way at Cathedral High School Wednesday when Mrs. Kenneth Dodge, president of the Lincoln Catholic Deaneary, and Mrs. Leander M. Kalin, chairman of the deaneary's safety committee, presented the school with textbooks, a course of study, arrangements for a car and introduced the driver training teacher to students. Mrs. Dodge, Mrs. Kalin and Mrs. John Short, co-chairman of the safety committee, were instrumental in arranging for the course. The car to be used is being contributed by a Lincoln car dealer. The project was started by Msgr. C. J. Riordan when he was pastor of the Cathedral parish. Above, Cathedral students meet their new instructor, John Marshall. With him are Mrs. Kalin (middle) and Mrs. Dodge. Planning for the course was done with the help of the Lancaster Safety Council and Cathedral High School officials. (Star Photo).

A Few Words Added To Courtesy Tickets To Save City Police Money

A few lines of type may save Lincoln police a considerable amount of money in the future.

The addition of a message was included on the flap of courtesy envelopes used by police when ticketing cars not registered in Lancaster County.

According to law, the first two tickets gotten by out-county drivers are automatically dismissed. Others must be paid.

But due to the lack of general understanding of the laws, police officials say, repeat violators with out-county licenses continually disregard paying their tickets. Many send them back in the courtesy envelopes with Lincoln addresses on the ticket itself.

This had been resulting in hard feelings and a great deal of work to personnel of the department, Capt. Orren Graves reports. Because of this, the following words have been added to the courtesy envelopes:

"This courtesy does not apply if you have an address within the City Limits of Lincoln, Nebraska."

George W. Holyoke has been named chairman of a special committee to develop plans for the proposed new Lincoln main library building.

Holyoke, appointed by the City Library Board, will work with the City Council on definite plans for the building.

At the board's monthly meeting, air conditioning was authorized for the University Place branch. Installation was expected to begin this month.

Librarian Charles E. Dalrymple planned further improvements in branch services including more teen-age reading sections.

State Hospital Worker Held After Shoplifting

A 29-year-old employee at the State Mental Hospital was arrested by Lincoln police Wednesday afternoon and held for investigation on an open charge.

He was apprehended after a store detective at Gold's reported to police the six candy bars, a light bulb, jar of instant coffee and a bar of soap had been shoplifted.

Manhole Covers Pop 150 Feet Up; 2 Women Injured

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two manhole covers shot 150 feet into the air on Public Square Wednesday, shattered against the Cleveland Terminal tower and fell in pieces among 50 terrified pedestrians.

Two women were taken to St. Vincent Charity Hospital, one suffering from a wrenched back and the other from shock, police said.

The covers struck high on the tower above the five double doors at the entrance. As the pieces thudded down on the sidewalk below, the pedestrians ran into doorways.

Police said the accident was due to a long-smouldering fire in an underground tunnel used by the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. The fire caused gas and resulted in an explosion, police said.

President's Day March 5 Proclaimed By Governor

The office of President of the United States is "the living symbol of the American flag and the Constitution," the proclamation said.

Sen. Knowland In Vote Race As 'Insurance'

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The name of Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) was entered in the March 20 Minnesota presidential primary Wednesday in what his supporters called an "insurance" filing.

The Knowland filing "is not against the President," said John G. Alexander, Minneapolis attorney who submitted petitions for a full slate of 25 delegates.

"It is more in the nature of an insurance against two things, first, having no Republican contest; and second, having to passively submit to the filing of an unwanted favorite-son candidate in the event of Ike's withdrawal."

No Explanation

Alexander declined to explain what he meant by "unwanted favorite-son."

A slate of Eisenhower delegates has already been filed. Sen. Knowland has indicated he would withdraw if the President announced his candidacy.

However, if President Eisenhower has not announced whether he will run by Feb. 25—deadline for candidates to withdraw from the Minnesota primary—both his name and Sen. Knowland's will go on the ballot since printing orders must be placed then.

Both Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, and Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) have filed Democratic slates.

Wheel, Chains Stolen

A tire, wheel and set of tire chains belonging to Earl E. Martin of 2919 No. 65th, was reported stolen. The report, received by Lincoln police, said the articles were lifted from the trunk of Martin's car while it was parked in a lot at 7th and Q. The loss was estimated at $20.

Stowaway To Be More Comfortable On His Trip Home

NEW YORK (INS)—A young man who came to the United States lying on his stomach was headed back home to Sao Paulo, Brazil, in more normal position.

The youth, Wanderley Da Cunha Camargo, 20, reached New York last Saturday as a stowaway in the nose wheel compartment of a plane. He wanted, he told authorities, "to see the United States."

His departure was in line with a deportation order issued by the U.S. immigration and naturalization service.

Lower Valuation For State-Owned Land Get Study

The State Board of Educational Lands and Funds Wednesday considered lower valuation figures for state-owned school lands in nine central and southern counties.

The rent automatically goes down as the valuation is reduced, since the annual rental is 6 per cent of the appraised value of the land.

Counties considered Wednesday were Dawson, Buffalo, Phelps, Kearney, Gosper, Franklin, Harlan, Furnas, and Red Willow.

Formal action was postponed until the next meeting, on March 12, because of the absence of two board members. The board instructed secretary Robert Hiatt, however, to continue with the revision of appraisals for individual tracts in the nine counties.

The pattern was about the same as for 19 counties already acted upon, where reductions in appraisals averaged about 20 per cent on farming land, 5 to 10 per cent on grazing land, and 15 per cent on hay land.

A blanket increase or reduction is forbidden by law. Each tract must be considered individually.

Expectant Mom Admits Slaying Mother-In-Law

ANTIOCH, Ill. (INS)—A young expectant mother admitted Wednesday that she killed her mother-in-law during a dispute over money in the older woman's home in Lake Catherine, two miles west of Antioch. She has been charged with murder.

Mrs. Maxine Jarolimek, 33, of Island Lake, three miles west of Wauconda, said she accidentally shot her husband's mother in the head and then twisted a scarf around her neck "as a tourniquet" in an effort to stop the flow of blood.

The victim, Mrs. Irene Jarolimek, 55, was found strangled on the front porch of her home Tuesday.

Sheriff Stanley Christian of Lake County and his deputies found a Babusha, blue jeans and shoes with spots that appeared to be blood in Maxine's home.

Maxine's husband, Jerome Jr., 33, is in Great Lakes Naval Hospital being treated for a nerve ailment.

Rites Pending For 2 Kearney Crash Victims

LINCOLN STAR SPECIAL

KEARNEY, Neb. — Funeral arrangements are pending for two prominent Kearney men killed in the collision of their car and a semi-trailer near Wood River on Highway 30.

James W. Hensley, 64, retired merchant, and J. J. Fales, 55, rural mail carrier, lost their lives in the accident. They were returning to their homes from a business trip to Atkinson.

The car the two were in, driven by Fales, collided with a truck driven by Arnold Jorgensen, 38, of Fremont. Both Jorgensen and a passenger in the truck, Melvin Buchholz of Fremont, escaped unhurt.

Tow Accidents

State Safety Patrol troopers said there were two accidents which apparently occurred at the same time. They said the other involved cars driven by Harland D. Hunsberger, 37, of Shelton, who suffered a broken knee cap, and Robert E. Heaps, 40, Kearney, who was brought to Kearney for treatment.

The troopers said as near as they could determine, the crash of the car driven by Fales and the truck occurred in a ditch as both tried to avoid the first two cars.

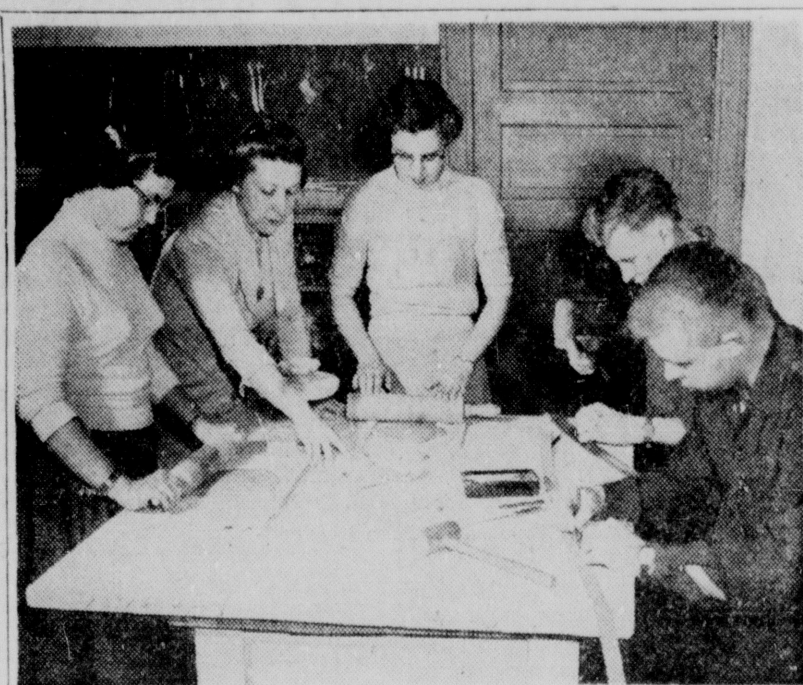

Hensley is survived by his wife, Eleanor, and two sisters, Mrs. Meta Neumarker of Columbus and Mrs. Ruby Paulus of San Diego, Calif. He was a member of the VFW, American Legion and Elks lodge.

BEATRICE, Neb. — Mrs. E. M. Graham, 906 N. 10th, says: "My husband had dandruff and itchy scalp very bad. We kept hearing so much praise for Baker's Hair Tonic that we decided to try a bottle. ## Midwestern Plans To Call 65 Witnesses For FPC Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Midwestern Gas Transmission Co., seeking authority to supply natural gas to midwestern cities, Wednesday protested "clarifying" questions asked by opponents at a Federal Power Commission hearing.

The procedure brought sharp protests from Harry Littman, attorney for Midwestern, who said "aren't we getting down to rock bottom technicalities in this case?"

Littman said the questions were slowing down presentation of evidence by Midwestern in support of its application for authority to supply 400 million cubic feet of natural gas daily to midwestern states.

Most of the second day of the hearing before Francis L. Hall, an examiner for FPC, was taken up with questioning of the first

Thugs Discover White-Haired Small Lady Has Mighty Swing

OMAHA (AP) — White-haired "never mind my age" Wilhelmina Linneman is a lady who won't stand for any holdup business, and she has proved it.

Two youths entered her small beer store and growled "this is a holdup."

Mrs. Linneman reacted swiftly. "I hit the nearest one right in the eye with a right swing," she told investigating police as she blew on her knuckles.

"They still hurt," she grinned. When her first swing brought a howl of pain from one youth, the other bolted out the door, Mrs. Linneman related.

The one who caught the punch dazedly started for the door but ran into it and couldn't get away until Mrs. Linneman had swung a few more times.

"I was so mad they could have shot me and I wouldn't have felt it," said the small woman. "But I didn't notice whether they had a gun."

"To think that two young punks like that would try such a thing. They should have been doing their homework," she disgustedly concluded.

'Plan Useful Life,' Reed Urges NWU Students

Nebraska Wesleyan University students Wednesday night were told:

"Not only is it possible to plan your career but it is imperative that you plan a useful life if you are in any measure to live up to your potential."

The speaker was Guy E. Reed of Chicago, well known native Nebraskan, who discussed the subject, "Building a Most Useful Career," at a joint Wesleyan student-public meeting in Huntington Hall.

"While it is important that you know the techniques of any field," the speaker asserted, "it is still more important that you gain human understandings."

"This presupposes that you recognize the purposefulness in life, that you have faith in your fellowmen, and that you dedicate yourself to being helpful to every human being who touches your life."

"In general," Reed said, "your education has been planned for you up to graduation from college. We can hope that your formal education has given you perspective so that you may plan wisely education from graduation to retirement."

Earlier in the day the speaker addressed a noon meeting of Lincoln businessmen, declaring that educators and businessmen have made great strides in erasing the suspicion with which they once viewed one another.

"Appreciate Each Other," "Businessmen and educators now appreciate and understand one another," he said. "They are on a joint campaign to produce the highest type individual and then put him to work in the most useful way."

Speaking on the support of higher education, the speaker pointed out that "... twenty-five years ago there was a little corporate giving to education. Today, grants, annual contributions and scholarships are the rule."

The prominent Chicagoan was brought to Lincoln for a series of three Wednesday meetings by the Lincoln committee of the Wesleyan development program under the chairmanship of James N. Ackerman.

Ackerman said Reed's appearance

ances are but the first in a series of meetings planned to bring prominent citizens to Lincoln to discuss questions of public interest before a wide range of audiences.

Hardin Talks At SE High Honors Meet

"Underlying our whole school effort, it is important that we tend carefully the American notion of individuality," Chancellor Clifford M. Hardin of the University of Nebraska Wednesday told the Honors Convocation at Southeast High School.

The courses of study are uniform, he said, and all study in one environment, many using the same books and having the same teachers.

The individuality is in the students, he said. "You share in the responsibility of thinking for yourself."

Lewis Brown and Jim Murphy, members of the society, presided at the first program of this type held at the new high school.

Miss Hazel Scott, school principal, presented the honor roll which includes 122 students between the seventh and 12th grades.

Also on the program were the Senior High Girl's Glee, directed by Miss Evelyn Fosbury and soloist Mary Dee Patterson.

National PTA Fifty-Nine Years Old Tomorrow

ALICE McCLELLAN BIRNEY

PHOEBE APPERSON HEARST

Celebrating its 59th anniversary on Friday, Feb. 17, will be the National Congress of Parents and Teachers whose Founders Day will be observed this month by the more than 41,000 local PTA units in the nation.

Founders of the organization were Mrs. Alice McClellan Birney, wife of Theodore W. Birney, a prominent Washington, D.C., attorney, and Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, widow of U.S. Senator George Hearst of California, who after two years of organizational work and enlisting the aid of prominent persons in the nation called the first meeting of the National Congress of Mothers on Feb. 17, 1897, in Washington, D.C. With the aim of improving the lot of the nation's children and to discuss ways and means of providing the best possible education and environment as the birthright of every child, the congress was an immediate success and was attended by over 2,000 mothers representing every state in the country.

From this congress grew the founding of individual state branches and local school units, and by 1925 the organization, which included in its membership faculty and fathers, as well as mothers, became known as the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

With a firm belief that what is right and good for the most favored children, is right and good for all children, and with a history filled with the promotion of legislation to protect the nation's children, the Congress today has nearly ten million members and has grown into a mammoth "town meeting" where parents from every type of community meet to discuss and solve problems pertaining to their children.

delegates attending the 1929 national convention of the Congress held at Washington, D.C. Posing with the delegates on the White House lawn are President Herbert Hoover (circled) and Mrs. Hoover at his left.

The Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers, which this year will hold its convention at Fremont on April 19 and 20, is composed of 366 local PTA units, divided into 13 districts in the state, with a membership of nearly 60,000.

In Lincoln, alone, there are 31 PTA units with additional units in the process of organization. By the end of the year, Lincoln's PTA membership will approximate 10,000.

With far-flung activities including efforts toward prevention of juvenile delinquency, improvement of the nation's schools and the current struggle to obtain more and better trained teachers, the headquarters staff also publishes the National Parent-Teacher Magazine, founded in 1906.

Lincoln PTAs Mark Anniversary

Saratoga PTA in Lincoln celebrated National Founders Day at its monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon by honoring past presidents of the unit and former recipients of PTA life memberships.

Mrs. John Schick, the current president, and two former presidents, Mrs. Alexander Bauer and Mrs. John Helzer, were honored with life memberships, and the decorated "birthday" cake was given to Mrs. C. A. McMunn (at left), president of the unit in 1920-21. Pictured with Mrs. McMunn are (from the left) Mrs. Helzer, Mrs. Bauer and Mrs. Schick.

To mark the Founders Day anniversary, Whittier PTA members met at the school Tuesday to honor Mrs. Charles A. Wilson, a member of the school faculty for 17 years. Mrs. Wilson (at left) was presented a PTA life membership by Mrs. Fred Schert (right), past president of Whittier PTA and of the Lincoln Council of Parents and Teachers, and currently, a member of the board of the state organization.

Each former president of the unit was presented a corsage, and a highlight of the program was a skit, in costume, given by a group of the PTA members.

A VERY CHIPPER MORNING

THE WORD is that it's a very chipper morning, newswise. The bright spot for many of the young couples will be the arrival home this week-end of Mr. and Mrs. William Gold, II, who will be returning from their Caribbean honeymoon on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Gold and his bride, the former Ann Rittmaster of New York City, will reside at 3107 South St.

The current week's calendar also contains courtesies for Mrs. Robert Knapple, the former Judy Joyce, whose marriage took place in January. The bridegroom, incidentally, is enroute to Germany and Mrs.

Knapple will join him there following her graduation from the University of Nebraska in June.

But to continue with our first thought—the parties. The bride's mother, Mrs. Ben Joyce was a hostess on Wednesday morning when she entertained at an informal coffee between the hours of 10 o'clock and 12 o'clock at her home so that the close friends of both the hostess and Mrs. Knapple could see the wedding gifts.

NEXT Sunday Mrs. Knapple will be complimented when Miss Shirley Scott, Miss Carol Tremain, Miss Barbara Olson and Miss Janice Yost are hostesses at a 10:30 o'clock brunch at the home of Miss Scott. The guest list will include the Alpha Phi seniors, and Mrs. Knapple will be presented with a kitchen shower.

HEAR that Mrs. Donald W. Miller returned the past week-end from New York City where she had been spending a few weeks. It might also interest you to know that Mrs. Miller now is a lady of leisure—she has retired from Miller and Paine's.

UNDERSTAND that Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams are having a holiday in Florida where they have been joined by Mrs. Williams' brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Steel of Boston. From Florida Mr. and Mrs. Williams will go to New York City where they will spend some time—and they also will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Palmer and their family.

THEN we learned that Mr. and Mrs. James Critchfield are expected home this week-end or early next week from New York City where Mr. Critch-field has been attending a convention.

MORE immediate homecomers, however, are Mrs. A. Q. Schimmel and Mrs. John H. Ames who returned on Wednesday evening from Galesburg, Ill., where they have been spending the past few days.

JUST learned that Tuesday night was not without its parties—One of them was the shower for which Miss Diann Hahn and the Misses Nancy and Jean Swanson were hostesses, at the home of Miss Hahn, when they entertained in courtesy to Mrs. John Kaveney. Fourteen guests were invited.

IN prenuptial courtesy to Miss Kay Schmoker, Mrs. Dudley Thompson and Mrs. L. R. White were hostesses at the home of Mrs. White on Wednesday evening. The guests included a group of old neighbors of the bride-elect and her family. Miss Schmoker, whose marriage to Cadet Delane Welsh takes place in March, was presented with a miscellaneous shower.

Square Dance On Friday

The Singer-Swingers Square Dance Club will entertain at a dance Friday evening in the auditorium of Park School. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock, and in charge of arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Yakel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kobza.

DAC Names Delegates

At the meeting of the Hannah Duston Chapter, Daughters of American Colonists, held last Saturday afternoon, the members elected Mrs. Reuben Knight of Alliance as chapter delegate to the national DAC Assembly in Washington, D. C., in April. Mrs. Knight's alternate will be

Mrs. C. E. R. Edmond of Lincoln.

Attending the state conference of the organization to be held at Omaha on March 24, will be Mrs. J. E. Arter, chapter regent, and also elected delegate was Miss Ruth Callender. Miss Edith Callender will be alternate to the state conference.

A June Bride-Elect

MISS MARJORIE SYFERT

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vernon Syfert make announcement this morning of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marjorie, to Melvin Duane Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra J. Campbell of Minneapolis. The wedding is planned for Sunday, June 3, and the ceremony will be solemnized at the College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church.

Both Miss Syfert and her fiancé are attending Union College where Mr. Campbell is a pre-med student.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Allen Lambrecht, to Cyril R. Lambrecht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Lambrecht. The ceremony took place on Saturday evening, Feb. 11, at Christ Methodist Church, when the Rev. Laurence R. Davis solemnized the ceremony in the presence of the families and a small group of close friends.

Mrs. Margaret Cunningham was the bride's only attendant, and Gail Gurney of Gladen served Mr. Lambrecht as best man.

The couple will reside in Red Cloud.

Open Meeting

Mrs. J. Edmunds Miller, public affairs chairman for the League of Women Voters of Lincoln, has announced that more than 200 are expected to attend the luncheon and program on city planning which will be sponsored by the league next Monday at the Chamber of Commerce.

Open to the public, the program is a community service offered by the league and will feature a panel discussion by the following civic leaders: Mayor Clark Jeary, who will discuss public utilities; C. C. Kimball and County Commissioner Russell Brehm, who will speak on plans for a city-county building; E. J. Faulkner, city planning and urban development; and Joe R. Seacrest, hospital facilities in Lincoln.

The program will be followed by a question-answer period.

To Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Geier will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday when they entertain at an open house to be held at their home, 404 C.

Members of the family and friends of the couple are asked to call between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock without further invitation.

Always A Father, Never A Bride

Preparing for that day when they must play the role of "Father of the Bride"—or bridegroom—are these members of Elliott PTA who will present their version of how a wedding should be staged at the PTA's fun night program to be given Friday evening at the school.

Pictured rehearsing for the performance are Harold Wehrhan, the flower girl, and Charles Saal, ring bearer, seated in front of the wedding party which includes (left to right) Karl Ebner, the preacher; Olin Wissler, maid of honor; Burt Hunt, bridesmaid; Albert Nance, policeman; William Chaloupka, bridegroom; T. O. Haas, the bride; Bill Amen and Lyle Eno, bridesmaids; Pa, "Judge" Phil Kelly, and Ma, Alfred Nielsen.

Leland Stephens, PTA budget and finance chairman, is general chairman for the program which will be held from 7 to 9:30 o'clock at the school. Other chairmen are:

Publicity, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Douthit; tickets, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Johnson; lunch room, Mrs. George Snider; show, Mrs. Lyle Eno, Mrs. Philip Kelly;

"Beat The Clock", Mrs. Rudolph Umland; "prize" walk, Mrs. Robert Teasdale; game room, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart; Ye Olde Curiosity Shoppe, Mrs. R. C. # 'Eva' Is Unveiled—A Device That Can See In Complete Darkness

BOSTON (AP)—A scientist unveiled for civilians Wednesday— for the first time—a device for seeing in complete darkness. "Eva" is the nickname affectionately bestowed upon the apparatus, which looks something like an ordinary, professional camera—on a tripod. It not only enables seeing without any light at all, but it takes pictures in color. Eva can easily see anything, from a human being to a blacked-out city, at night.

Dr. Bruce Billings, physicist and general manager of Baird Associates, Inc., showed "Eva"—otherwise known as an Evaporograph—to the directors of American Research and Development Corp. Baird Associates, which developed Eva, is an affiliate of A.R.D.

See A Mile

Dr. Billings displayed a picture Eva made of a man taken at 200 yards in a black, moonless night—without any light source. He said Eva could similarly "see" a house a mile away. And he showed a nighttime shot which revealed a faraway dark island and other objects in Boston Harbor.

Incidentally, Eva is not an electronic device.

What is Eva's secret—only now declassified by the U. S. Signal Corps, one of Eva's sponsors?

Instead of focussing reflected light, like ordinary cameras, Eva gathers the heat radiation sent out in varying degrees and wave lengths by various objects. And it focusses these radiations on a very thin, uniform film of oil.

Like Oil On Puddle

To understand how the oil film works, Dr. Billings uses this explanation: You've seen gasoline or other forms of oil spread in a thin varicolored film upon a puddle in the street. The varying, iridescent colors of that oil film come from the different thicknesses of that thin covering of oil on the water.

Inside Eva, such a film is maintained on a plastic membrane. And as the heat radiations are focussed on the oil film, molecules evaporate from the oil surface in proportion to the temperatures focussed on the various parts of the film. With white light, you can look in and see this image in color formed on the small membrane. And a little camera built into Eva takes color pictures of the image.

The present models cost $9,500. When asked how the sensitivity of Eva compares with that of infrared photographic film, Dr. Billings said he wasn't sure but it might be in the ratio of 100 billion to 1.

What Uses

What will Eva be used for? Many things—but except for secret military uses she may be used at the outset largely for industrial and other research in which accurate temperature recordings are necessary. For Eva is very sensitive to temperature. She accurately records varying temperatures of objects she sees—down to half a degree. And if she takes a picture of a city, she gets very strong views of the hot gases pouring out of chimneys. There's no blackout that can keep Eva from seeing.

Eva is said to have many possibilities.

Eva can take recognizable portraits, based on variations on skin temperatures. Dr. Billings suggests that in the field of medicine, she might reveal those tumors or infections which cause temperature rise in some parts of the skin. She could take a look at a house and tell where heat was being lost, or show the effectiveness of insulation on a boiler installation. She can show whether an electronic chassis is radiating heat efficiently, or peer inside a radio tube, or look into the heat of a flame.

Actually, Eva came from a basic discovery made away back in 1933 by a German physicist named Czerny who found he could use the evaporation of oil from an oil film to detect infrared radiations in his spectrographic studies.

But enormous research was necessary to create the abilities which Eva now possesses.

Airman Alleges Driver Dozed, Causing Wreck

A $15,000 personal injury suit has been filed in Lancaster District Court by Donald M. Peterson, 20, through his mother, against Richard Farber of Lincoln. Peterson, stationed at the Lincoln Air Force Base, alleges he was an "invited guest" in the defendant's automobile, which went into the ditch and struck a telephone pole Nov. 20, 1955, on a highway south of Beatrice. He was injured in the accident.

The plaintiff's petition alleges that Farber, named the defendant driver, "fell asleep and lost control" of the car.

Pardon Board Defers Action On Minister's Clemency Plea

The Pardon Board Wednesday deferred for 30 days action on the application for clemency of Tarbio Gonzales, 50, Assembly of God minister at Gibbon, who was sentenced to 14 years in the Penitentiary in 1949 accused of statutory rape in Buffalo county against his four-year-old step-daughter. He has served about six and one-half years.

Mary Johnson To Edit NWU Paper

Mary Johnson, a freshman from Norfolk, has been named new editor of the Nebraska Wesleyan University weekly campus newspaper. She replaces Charles Fredrick, Seward senior.

Duane Bennett of St. Joseph, a junior, will continue as business manager. New assistant editor is Darrell Seng, a sophomore from Lincoln. He succeeds Carole Tietjen, Riverton senior.

The board also denied clemency to 70-year-old Wm. Bassinger of Nebraska City serving life for first degree murder. He has been serving since 1941 and is now a trustee at the cattle barns.

Fire, Casualty Men Donate Play, Other Equipment To City

A gift totaling $2,331 in cost for playground equipment and other items has been made to the city by the Lincoln Association of Fire and Casualty Agents.

The gifts to Lincoln have become an annual project for the Association. This year's gift includes four smoke masks for the fire department which complete city-wide equipping of the department with these facilities by the Association.

Of the total amount involved, $1,311 represents one birch hobby horse and one game time to slide each in College View, Belmont and Roberts Parks.

The masks are valued at $620. The remaining items to be given are five room air conditioners for Lincoln General Hospital, with estimated value of $1,000.

Science Develops New Tablet:

Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps For 3 out of 4 Women Tested! Gives Greater Relief Than Aspirin!

Boston, Mass. (Special)—New promise of relief for women who suffer from monthly cramps and nervous tension is found in an amazing new tablet... developed especially to relieve this female discomfort. It offers greater relief than aspirin during that distressing period each month!
Doctors report remarkable results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pain and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, no backaches or other functionally-caused distress... were also less jittery the trying week before their period!
The new tablet contains not just one or two ingredients but a unique combination of special medicines. That's why this new discovery offers more relief than plain aspirin! Unlike such "general-purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has amazing power to calm uterine contractions, also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.
Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," the formula was developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to relief of women's ailments! Easy-to-take new Pinkham's Tablets are now available at all drug stores without a prescription.
So don't suffer needlessly. See if you don't feel worlds better this very month. See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort—both before and during those "difficult days." (For liquid form... ask for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

Santee Promised 'Fairer Hearing'

New President Of AAU To Preside At Meeting

By CHRIS EDMONDS

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Miller Wes Santee will have "the very fairest of hearings" in New York Sunday before the executive committee of the National Amateur Athletic Union (AAU), its president promised Wednesday.

"I will be in New York to preside at the meetings," said Carl Hansen of Oakland, new AAU president. "As far as his suspension or non-suspension is concerned, I will make no prediction at this time."

Santee, now a Marine lieutenant, threatened legal action Tuesday if he is barred from running in the 1956 Olympic Games. He was suspended by the Missouri Valley AAU last November for taking "excessive expenses" for three track meets in this area last spring. The suspension was lifted after six weeks, but Santee later withdrew from indoor competition at the request of an AAU investigating committee.

Hansen said Wednesday that "I named that investigating committee myself and kept it secret because I did not want its members harassed by outside interference while they were at work."

"There was no Gestapo idea or anything like it in mind," Hansen said. "I just thought it better not to announce the names of the members to make their work easier. They would have been bothered, I felt, by well-meaning persons offering advice."

Hansen said the seven-man committee would present its findings in the Santee case to the executive committee at its New York meeting Sunday.

"The committee's report may be with or without recommendations," he said. "In any event it will be up to the executive committee to make a decision, since it is empowered under the AAU bylaws to take charge of all affairs when the full board of governors is not in convention."

Hansen indicated he was surprised at the threat of legal action made by Santee and his attorney, Charles P. Grimes, at a New York track writers luncheon.

"Santee has been very co-operative," he said. "It seems unique to me that a member of a voluntary organization like the AAU could sue the parent body for action taken against him. It would be sort of like a union member suing his union for taking up his card because he had violated a rule."

"However, if Santee is correct in his statement that the AAU bylaws state his case should be turned back to a regional group, we certainly will follow our own rules."

"All the AAU tries to do is protect its member athletes. We try, and will continue to try, to be fair in all things."

Ferris said the letter from Grimes "has just been delivered by hand, and I have no comment. It will be submitted to the committee on Sunday."

St. Francis Of Brooklyn Being Compared To Dons

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

BROOKLYN (AP)—When little St. Francis College of Brooklyn was asked last week to mingle with the big boys of basketball in the National Invitation tournament a lot of folks wondered if the committee hadn't gone overboard trying to find a local entry for the post-season shindig.

Now the experts are seriously comparing the Terriers to the nation's only other undefeated major college team — NCAA champion San Francisco.

The convincer was the 98-75 trimming St. Francis handed tournament-hopeful Manhattan Tuesday night. Until then, some doubt had existed in spite of the Terriers' "major" rating and their undefeated record. It was hard to believe that a school with only 500 enrollment — one that couldn't even get a preliminary game booking in Madison Square Garden a few years ago — belongs in such select company.

St. Francis hasn't run a really rugged schedule in running up 17 victories this season, but the performances of Dan Mannix, Al Inniss, Walt Adamushko and Co., have been real big-time stuff. The Terriers have beaten one other NIT entry, Seton Hall, and have just about spoiled the hopes of two others, St. John's and Manhattan.

"Who's better than St. Francis? San Francisco, probably. But I haven't seen any other clubs which are better. They certainly belong in the first 10 nationally."

Some observers were likening Inniss, a 6-7 Negro sophomore, to San Francisco's Bill Russell as a goal tender. He knocked away at least 15 Manhattan shots, snagged 24 rebounds and shackled sharpshooter Angelo Lombardo.

Ranked Second Latest NCAA Service Bureau statistics — a week old — show St. Francis second among major college teams in rebound recovering, among the first 10 in scoring averages and third in fewest personal fouls committed. Tuesday's performance must have improved on those figures as the Terriers hit 39 of 89 shots from the floor.

St. Francis sought its 18th straight victory against Brooklyn College. Then they close out their season against St. Joseph of Philadelphia, Iona and Siena before the NIT.

Doctor Claims Campanella Should Pay NEW YORK (AP)—Roy Campanella's family physician testified Wednesday that he recommended that a neurosurgeon operate on the Brooklyn Dodger catcher's left hand.

The physician, Dr. Lynella Hill, also said he told Campanella the operation would cost between $8,000 and $10,000.

Dr. Hill testified at a Supreme Court suit by Dr. Samuel Shennman, of Manhattan, who performed the operation and charged that Campanella reneged on paying an agreed fee of $9,500.

"I told Roy it was a delicate operation and an expensive one," Dr. Hill testified. "I told him Dr. Shennman said it would run between $8,000 and $10,000. I told him that in my opinion his hand would get weaker. I told him an operation was necessary and it was the only thing that could save his hand. I said the best qualified man I knew was Dr. Shennman."

Pros' 'War Of Dollars' Will Go On

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—There appears to be no end to professional football's international war of dollars even though the National Football League and the Canadian pros are close to settling many of their mutual problems.

Bert Bell, commissioner of the NFL, and Ralph Cooper, chairman of the Canadian Football Council, agreed in principle Wednesday on almost all of the thorny problems and conflicts between the two organizations, but admitted there was nothing they could do about the soaring salaries.

Highest Bidder
Bell said, and Cooper assented, that "We can't and don't want to do anything that will restrain the rights of players. If they are free agents—players not under contract or option to either league—the highest bidder will get the man."

Bell and Cooper did agree to recognize contracts and options already on file in league offices. In plain English, they agreed not to raid each other of player talent.

The two football executives met at a midtown hotel in a unique open forum. The press sat in on the open and frank discussions and was allowed to interrupt with questions on any point it probably was the first sports meeting of its type.

"Absolute Authority"
Bell opened the session with the statement that he had "absolute authority to make any deal with Canadian football I feel fair and just."

Cooper, who represented the nine teams which make up the Canadian Big Four and Western Interprovincial Leagues, replied that he did not have such authority.

"I am here to talk over an agreement whereby we can recognize each other's contracts and options. We desire to tie our group closer to the National Football League. I will carry back what is discussed here to a meeting of the Canadian teams in Toronto on March 1. I hope that at that time we will be able to finalize these discussions and make a formal agreement."

Stumbling Block
Both Bell and Cooper agreed there was one stumbling block in the way of the two leagues reaching any agreement. That is the problem of what each league considers the other's past indiscretions in "stealing" ball players allegedly under contract or option. Cooper presented a list of 13 players Canada wants back and Bell a list of 45 the NFL would like returned.

Bell, in answer to a question as to whether the NFL would consider an agreement forgetting the past, said "No, there are some adjustments which have to be made."

Need Canadian Czar
Cooper agreed with Bell when the latter said the only way the two leagues will ever get together is if the Canadians send one man to meet with him with the same absolute authority to make a deal that the NFL commissioner possesses.

"When Canada does that," said Bell, "we'll get together in five hours."

Yale Wins 96-72 Over Pennsylvania

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale broke away late in the first half and went on to drub Pennsylvania 96-72 in an Ivy League basketball game. Sophomore Johnny Lee led the Eli attack with 31 points.

The victory pulled Yale up to a 4-3 record in the Ivy League race, and the defeat knocked Penn down to 3-3.

The lead changed hands eight times in a closely fought beginning, but at the 13-minute mark the Elis scored 9 straight points to move comfortably in front.

Princeton Wins
PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Princeton's cagers bounced back from last Saturday's Ivy League setback at the hands of Brown Wednesday night, defeating Harvard for the second time in five days, 93-46.

Lause's Win String Ended By Boyd In Brilliant Upset

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's Bobby Boyd ended Argentine Eduardo Lause's undefeated string at 32 with a split 10-round decision in a savage middleweight bout at the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.

Boyd, a 9-5 underdog, fought a brilliant battle and survived what was counted as a fourth-round knockdown in scoring the victory, over the bleeding and harassed Lause. It was Boyd's ninth straight win.

Both fighters weighed 160.

The two judges voted for Boyd and Referee Frank Sikora saw it for Lause, 94-93. Judge Spike McAdams called it for Boyd by a substantial 95-88 margin and Judge John Bray voted for the rangy Chicago Negro, 94-91. The AP had Boyd winning, 96-95.

Lause packed a lot of dynamite in his punches but the third-ranked contender from Buenos Aires, who had scored 49 knockouts in his 61-6-3 record, ran into a buzz saw Wednesday night.

Boyd's 30-6-2 record now makes him a solid title contender. Everytime Lause had Boyd in trouble, Bobby battled back with vicious rallies.

The fourth-round knockdown came on a crunching right to the chin by Lause. The referee started counting after Boyd bounced to his feet and the crowd hooted derisively because it appeared a slip.

Lemon OKs Indian Pact; Takes Cut

CLEVELAND (AP)—Bob Lemon, who may pitch his 200th victory sometime next summer, phoned here from his home in Long Beach, Calif., Wednesday and agreed to his 1956 contract, the Cleveland Indians said.

As usual, the Indians declined to discuss salary terms. But it was believed Lemon took a cut of $5,000 to around $40,000, a figure which still leaves him the highest-paid player on the Tribe roster.

The 35-year-old converted infielder, twice sidelined by injuries last year, managed to win 18 games against 10 losses and tie Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees and Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox for the most victories in the American League. He started 31 games, appeared in relief in four others and had an earned-run average of 3.70.

A righthander, Lemon has won 181 victories for Cleveland since he gave up the infield for the mound. He has had six 20-game seasons within the past eight years, the last in 1954 with his best mark of 23.

Lemon possesses a variety of breaking pitches and has been particularly effective in recent seasons against Cleveland's foremost opponents, the Yankees and the Chicago White Sox. Last summer he won eight and lost four to those teams.

His 1955 season started splendidly as he won his first five starts prior to May 1. On July 21, he pulled a leg muscle in a game with the Baltimore Orioles, but continued to take his regular turn.

Late in July, he again hurt his leg during a practice and was out of action from July 19 to August 7. He failed to complete any games after May 30, Manager Al Lopez choosing to give him relief help to changing a loss due to the leg ailment.

With Lemon's signing, the only veteran player still in real question contract-wise is Bob Avila, the Indians' peppy Mexican second baseman. Avila has sought better terms in each of several seasons, but usually comes poking over the border before the season gets underway.

Early Wynn, another top right-hander, indicated several weeks ago in a newspaper column he writes that he's satisfied with the terms he's been offered.

North Carolina Tips Wake Forest

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—North Carolina, behind the 33-point sharpshooting of Lennis Rosenbluth, took over undisputed possession of first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference by gaining a 77-73 revenge victory over neighboring Wake Forest.

The Tar Heels, ranked 10th best in the nation, went ahead for good with 2:15 remaining on a 2-point by Rosenbluth in a game, which was tied 18 times and which never saw more than a 4-point margin separating the teams.

Wake Forest, which had been in a three-way tie with North Carolina and N. C. State for first place in the loop standings, had defeated the Tar Heels earlier in the season, 76-71.

'Wide Open' Texas Tourney Starts Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—They called the Texas Open the "Wide Open" Wednesday as a star-flecked field of more than 160 tested the rugged Ft. Sam Houston course in last time-ups before the $20,000 tournament starts.

"Wide Open" because there's not an outstanding favorite and because it's being played on a new course, the 6,476-yard Amry layout that has been keeping the score within bounds.

Likely Winners

Players mentioned as most likely to bag the $4,000 first money include E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the veteran campaigner, who did a brilliant 61 in a pro-amateur Tuesday; Mike Souchak, the burly ex-footballer who won last year with a PGA record 257 for 72 holes over the comparatively easy Brackenridge Park course, and Jimmie Demaret, the jaunty one who has finished second in the tournament three times and is shooting well this year.

But, it was pointed out, the only player who has won more than one tournament on the winter trail—Cary Middlecoff—isn't playing here. There have been six tournaments. Ted Kroll, winner of the last one—the Tucson Open—is regarded highly here because he has often shot well in the Texas Open.

There are five former champions in the field—Harrison, who won twice—in 1939 and 1951; Dave Douglas, Tony Holguin, Jack Burke and Souchak. Also, Jack Fleck, the National Open champion, and Doug Ford, the 1955 PGA king, are playing here. Joe Conrad, the British Amateur champion, heads the simon-pures.

Some 63's have been turned in over the par 72 Ft. Sam Houston course, indicating that forecasts by the veteran players that there will be no such things as 60's and 257's such as marked the past several years are correct. Harrison's 61 Tuesday was over the 6,135-yard Oak Hills course, which isn't nearly so tough as Ft. Sam Houston.

Demaret thinks 276 might win first money.

The first 18 holes will be played today. The tournament ends Sunday.

St. Francis Wins Over Brooklyn

BROOKLYN (AP)—Unbeaten St. Francis of Brooklyn chalked up its 16th victory of the season, defeating Brooklyn College 94-74.

The NIT-bound Terriers built up a 46-32 halftime lead and then coasted home as Dan Mannix dropped in 29 points and Al Inniss grabbed off 37 rebounds for a school record and scored 17 points.

Nick Gaetani was high for the losers with 17.

Temple Tips La Salle

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Temple University's Owls, beaten only once this season, scored 12 points in the last 5½ minutes while holding LaSalle scoreless to overcome the Explorers 60-57, in the second game of a Palestine double-header. St. Joseph's College coasted to a 77-51 victory over Franklin & Marshall in the opener.

ANDY SEMINICK

Phils 'Old' Andy Seminick Ready To Play

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—In 1950, when the Philadelphia Phillies won their first National League pennant since 1915, they dubbed him Grandpa Whiz Now, in the ripeness of his 35 years, he goes by the name of Old Ironsides and similar monickers indicating that old catchers don't rust away.

That, of course is Andy Seminick, the chunky, bald and belting stalwart of a team soon to start a new season with old hopes of getting into another World Series.

Andy has signed his 14th major league contract and his 11th with the Phillies, the Whiz Kids of nearly six years ago.

Andy may never be considered for baseball's Hall of Fame, nor be remembered breathlessly by fans of tomorrow reminiscing over spectacular plays, but he's a great fellow to have on your side.

Old Andy—and the "Old" is a sign of affection, not of dotage—is reckoned one of the most dependable players and best moral-builders in the major leagues. Veteran as well as younger pitchers like to know that Andy is behind the plate. Besides that, he fairly often comes through with the home run that seems just too much to expect.

Andy, at the moment teaching rookie catchers in the Phillies' baseball school, said "I figure I have at least three more good years. By that, I mean I should be able to catch at least 100 games a season—barring injury."

Briggs Is Named At Washington U

SEATTLE (AP)—George C. Briggs Jr. was named director of the turn-molt-torn University of Washington athletic department Wednesday by Vice President H. P. Dick Everest.

Everest made the disclosure after a conference with the university's student board of control and said "Mr. Briggs has accepted." The 31-year-old Briggs has been assistant director of athletics at the University of California since 1953.

Concordia To 1st Place Tie

SEWARD — Concordia College used a second-half rally to defeat Tarkio 81-74 here.

Concordia had a 22-19 lead after 10 minutes but Tarkio drew away and led at halftime 38-34.

Ed Schultze sparked the Bulldogs in the second half and Concordia took a 5-point lead with 13 minutes left in the game.

The win put Concordia in a tie for first place in the CCCC with Westmar and a game between the two leaders Friday night will decide the championship.

Schultze and Mehl got 16 each to lead the winner's scoring and Dave Nichol got 21 for Tarkio.

Holmesville Loses Season's Finale

HOLMESVILLE—Liberty closed out Holmesville's regular-season basketball schedule by handing the home town team a 64-57 defeat.

Bill Vasey with 18 points was high for the winners and Rich Ideus got 20 to lead Holmesville.

St. Louis Scores Over Bradley

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—St. Louis University pulled into a first-place tie with Houston in the Missouri Valley Conference basketball race by turning back Bradley 73-62. The leaders have identical 7-2 records.

Bradley's Braves took the lead at the outset and held it until just over a minute remained in the first half. Then the Billikens went ahead for the first time 34-32 on a field goal by Jim McLaughlin. Another quick basket by Al Serkin made it 36-32 at the intermission.

The first thoroughbred meeting at a track in Maryland was opened on Oct. 2, 1911.

Ike's Doctor Makes Plea—

Solons Urged To Hike Coronary Study Funds

WASHINGTON (INS) — Dr. Paul Dudley White, President Eisenhower's heart specialist, urged Congress Wednesday to boost coronary research funds far beyond the figure requested by the chief executive.

The Boston doctor's plea got a sympathetic reception — one reason being that the chairman of the House subcommittee before which he testified is a former patient who was restored to vigorous health after a severe heart attack.

The legislator is Rep. John E. Fogarty (D-RI) head of a House group studying the administration's request for heart research appropriations. Fogarty, stricken four years ago, recovered under White's guidance.

The doctor, whose Congressional appearance was marked by some brisk political give-and-take with newsmen, urged an 11 million dollar increase in funds for the National Heart Institute, to a total of $29,988,000 for the next fiscal year.

$8 Million Over Request

This is eight million dollars more than the increase Eisenhower asked. The institute is operating under an appropriation of about 19 million dollars for the current fiscal year.

Fogarty promised that the subcommittee will "take a second look" at the budget as a result of the testimony given by the 69-year-old specialist, who appeared in his capacity as executive director of the National Advisory Heart Council.

White declared the council is more than two million dollars in debt and that several "worthwhile research projects" will be blocked unless more money is forthcoming.

Dynamic Target

The doctor, a dynamic man who stepped around briskly, hauling a big suitcase crammed with material supporting his argument for increased funds, proved a difficult target for reporters.

"The way you jump around," a newsmen volunteered, "I don't think you're a very good risk."

The star witness laughed, and an aide remarked that "Dr. White doesn't think he'll ever have a heart attack because he's the slender-bony type."

This brought a "consultation" in which medical men present

OMAHA (AP) — The State Aeronautics Commission recommended Wednesday that Steve Gilbert, airport engineer for the department, be named acting director. Gov. Anderson makes the appointment. Commission Chairman B. M. Reeh of Blair, said a suggestion that the recommendation be for an acting director to serve until a permanent choice is made came from the governor.

James Ramsey, who had been director for eight and a half years, has resigned to enter civil defense work.

POSTCARD

Pulque is a milky sort of brew that comes from the Mexican century plant. It is sold in special bars called pulquerias. And I should say these are places where the tourist never goes.

Nevertheless it is a very historical drink, having been brewed by the Aztecs before Cortez. They had 400 pulque gods. The most famous one was Tepoztecatl and he lived in a temple on the hill above Tepoztlan.

The other day I drove over from Mexico City to see what was brewing these days of the dry martini era.

There was not much doing, since it was the noon hour. But it is a pretty town. With a shady plaza and a great, gray stone church of much age.

It takes about two hours' climb to reach the Temple of Tepozteco. There is a Christian chapel here. For the Spaniards were forever climbing up hills and tossing down Aztec idols.

Mr. Bernal Diaz, the soldier-historian of Cortez, reported that they took captive a number of pretty Indian ladies in this town. But they must have taken them somewhere else. The ladies selling beans and onions and fruit in the open-air market were very colorful. But—well.

One of them asked me if I was a turista. I said yes, a turista and writer.

"Everyone comes to Tepoztlan to write," she said. "Many people." This is true. Mr. Stuart Chase and Mr. Oscar Lewis and the man who did the study called "Middle-town, U.S.A." They all wrote about the town.

I asked the lady, How about that pulque, lady? She said all the pulque beltors were at that moment belting the stuff right across the way. There was a dark little bar with several horses parked in front of it and a lot of booming jukebox music rolling out the door.

It did not look like the Stork Club. But I went over and a gentleman in a serape came out and hung onto my neck and asked affectionately what he could do for me in the little now.

I asked him how I could get to Ahuatepec.

When Cortez was marching through this back country, he headquartered for a few days in Ahuatepec. Bernal Diaz said there was a fine garden there.

"I certainly had never seen one of such magnificence, and Cortez and the treasurer, Alderete, after they had walked through and examined it, declared that it was admirable and equal to any that they had ever seen in Castille."

The gentleman with the pulque said he would point the way to Ahuatepec surely. And in the little now he would accompany me. To the very gates of the village.

He waved a hand in the general direction. Whereupon another Indian came out and said, No, certainly it was in a different direction.

They went into a great argument about it. They hung on each other's necks and shouted and blew pulque fumes at each other.

"Why do you want to go to Ahuatepec?" they asked.

I am not sure how Mr. Cortez rates after all these years. Not too good in some parts. And perhaps they had heard the story how the Spaniards took away all the Miss Mexicos of 1521.

"To see a garden." "The gardens of Ahuatepec are nothing. Come to our town of Jojotepec. See the corn fields."

"I would be happy to see beautiful Jojotepec. But I must call on a sick friend."

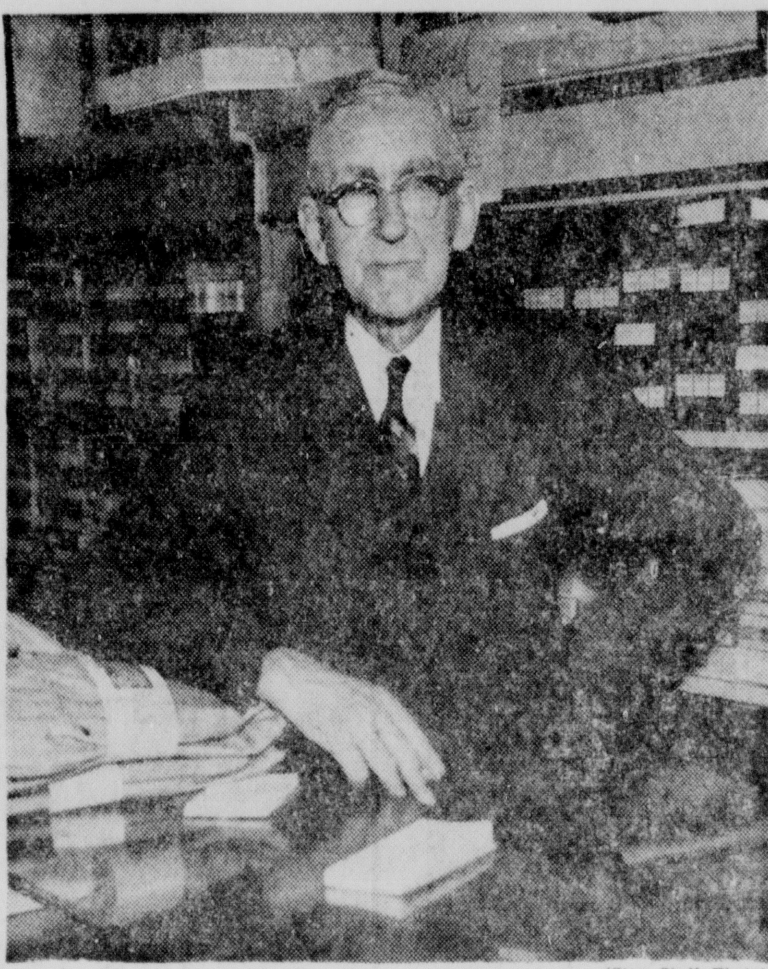

"Who is your friend?"

"Pedro Garcia." (Show me a town without a Pedro Garcia.)

"We do not know him. Have a pulque with us."

"What a pity. I have an infirmity of the stomach."

MR. THOMAS . . . A Familiar Pose

Seen Many A Style Change
Neb. City Clothing Store
Couple Soon To Retire

By DEL HARDING
Star Staff Writer
NEBRASKA CITY, Neb.—Mrs. W. J. (Wink) Thomas says there have been many style changes since she and her husband opened the doors of the Thomas Clothing Co. on Sept. 9, 1933.

They will soon close their Central Avenue store and retire.

Mrs. Thomas said there has been an increased trend toward the use of more synthetic materials such as rayon, orlon and dacron.

Who more often buys the clothes the man of the house wears—men or women?

Women, Mrs. Thomas answered unhesitatingly.

Men usually accompany their wives when the man needs a new suit, she commented. But many times the man doesn't know quite what he wants, she adds, and his wife has to pick out the suit. Women also remember sizes better than men do, she says.

The Thomases worked in the old Cleveland Department Store before opening their own store, which is the only store in Nebraska City which deals exclusively in men's clothing.

The Thomases have operated the store as a team. Thomas does most of the sales and buying and his wife does the bookkeeping and helps out with the sales.

"It has been an interesting business," said Mrs. Thomas, who added that she'd do the same thing if she had it to do over again. She says she will miss her bookkeeping the most when they close.

What are their plans?

Mrs. Thomas hopes to just relax and not have to worry about getting up early in the morning. Her husband says he is going to concentrate on his favorite hobby: fishing.

"I fish every morning," he says, "from the time the ice melts in the spring until it freezes on again in the winter."

State Livestock, Poultry
Down By $118 Million

The value of livestock and poultry in Nebraska took an 118 million dollars nosedive between Jan. 1 of last year and the start of the current year, government statisticians reported Wednesday.

The combined inventory value was slightly under 464 million dollars at the start of last month, compared with 582 million a year earlier, according to the state-federal division of agricultural statistics.

Inventory numbers were smaller for cattle, sheep, work stock and chickens. Hog numbers, however, climbed 3 per cent to the highest total since 1932 and turkeys also were more numerous.

Cattle Drops
Cattle numbers dropped 5 per cent although the Jan. 1 total stood as the third largest of record.

The sheep inventory fell 20 per cent, largely as a result of reduced sheep feeding which dropped Nebraska into second place nationally.

Horse and mule numbers fell off 18 per cent to the lowest level since 1872.

Price Cuts Contribute
The chicken population, which has been declining since 1944, dropped another 3 per cent but turkeys were 15 per cent more numerous.

Price reductions on hogs, cattle and sheep since last year contributed in part to the drop in over-all inventory value.

Summary of the Jan. 1 inventory:

Cattle: Farms and ranches held an estimated 4,821,000 head of cattle and calves as of Jan. 1. That's 15 per cent above the 10-year (1944-54) average of 4,204,000 head, although 5 per cent under the year-ago total. Dry weather and a smaller corn crop contributed to the decline. Shipments of stocker and feeder cattle to country points dropped 15 per cent in 1955.

Cattle Average $82

The average value of cattle per head on Jan. 1 was $82, compared with $93 a year earlier.

Sheep: The Jan. 1 population of sheep and lambs was estimated at 242,000 head, down 7 per cent from a year ago but 17 per cent above the 10 year average.

Hogs: Numbers totaled 2,493,000 on Jan. 1 compared with 2,308,000 a year earlier. The average value per hog dropped from $36.10 a year ago to $17.50 this year.

Chickens: Farms counted 11,167,000 chickens on Jan. 1, compared with 11,563,000 a year earlier. The current total is the smallest since 1933. Average value per chicken climbed from 80 cents to $1.05 during the year.

Turkeys: Population totaled 36,900, consisting mainly of breeder hens.

Gore Plans Broad Probe Of Senate Contributions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) announced plans Wednesday night for a sweeping investigation of Senatorial campaign contributions.

After a conference with Democratic leaders of the Senate, Gore said he had called a meeting of his Senate Elections Subcommittee for Thursday morning to recommend the broad inquiry into "campaign contributions, federal elections and any evidence of corrupt practices which may be revealed."

A short time before, Sen. Bridges (R-NH), chairman of the Senate's Republican Policy Committee, issued a statement urging an expanded investigation of lobby pressures exerted on senators during their consideration of the natural gas bill.

Bridges said he thought the work ought to be done by the special committee of four senators appointed to look into a $2,500 campaign contribution turned down by Sen. Case (R-SD) in advance of the vote on the gas legislation. This came from the president of an oil and gas company favoring the legislation, but Bridges said there was "a great deal of pressure" against the bill, and said this should be investigated.

But Sen. George (D-Ga.), chairman of the special committee, threw cold water on the idea of enlarging that committee's investigation. He said he knew of nothing now to justify it and added that he expected the committee to submit a report on the Case incident next week.

The committee held a series of hearings within the last week to try to determine whether the $2,500 offered Case was an attempt to influence his vote.

Gore conferred with Sen. Clements of Kentucky, acting Democratic leader, and spent an hour with George before announcing his plans for the broader inquiry.

George reported he had told Gore that "unless something of a startling nature occurs, which I do not now foresee, I hope we can make a report to the Senate next week . . . and ask to be discharged."

If the Senate should decide to expand his committee's authority for the purpose of a general investigation, George said, he would not be able to serve because he has too many other things to do.

'Far Wider' Scope
Gore said the inquiry he has in mind was of a scope "far wider than the gas bill," and he estimated it would "run throughout the year."

After three weeks of debate, the Senate passed the gas bill on a 53-38 vote Feb. 6 and sent it to President Eisenhower. The legislation would exempt natural gas producers from direct federal rate regulation.

George, Case and Gore vote against it. Bridges voted for it. Meanwhile, a federal Grand Jury which is conducting a separate investigation of the Case incident spent most of the day questioning Elmer Patman of Austin, Tex., a lawyer for the Superior Oil Co. of California.

Gave Money
Patman is the man who gave the $2,500 to John M. Neff, who gave it in turn to E. J. Kahler of Sioux Falls, S.D., to be dropped in Case's campaign kitty.

Patman testified before the George Committee last week that he happened to have some "personal funds" of Howard B. Keck, president of Superior Oil, and used part of them for the contribution.

Sen. Thye has called for an inquiry into where Neff got $2,500 to contribute to the Nebraska Republican Central Committee last October. In Omaha, the Omaha World-Herald published a special dispatch from its Washington Bureau saying it has learned that this contribution also came from Howard Keck's personal funds.

There was no official confirmation of published reports that Eisenhower is considering a veto of the gas bill. The bill becomes law automatically unless the President takes some action by Saturday.

Louis Speidel, Farmer, Dies Of Gun Wound

Louis Speidel, 56-year-old Lancaster County farmer, died Wednesday in a Lincoln hospital from a gun wound, which Acting Coroner William Johnson said was self-inflicted about an hour earlier.

Johnson said Mr. Speidel had left several notes indicating he intended to take his own life due to ill health.

Mr. Speidel, who farmed in the Yankee Hill area just southwest of Lincoln, was found on the porch of his farm home by an ambulance driver.

The ambulance was dispatched by a Lincoln mortuary after Mr. Speidel phoned to say than an accident was about to happen, according to Johnson. The call was received about 11:50 a.m. Mr. Speidel died at 1:08 p.m.

Johnson said a .22-caliber revolver was used to inflict the wound after Mr. Speidel had wrapped his head in a towel.

Mr. Speidel's wife, Gladys, was serving on a Lancaster District Court jury at the time of the incident.

He is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Don Fauth of Lincoln.

Red Cloud Jet Pilot Lands Craft Safely

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — An Air Force jet pilot from Nebraska made an emergency landing on a narrow strip of land between a railroad and highway Wednesday.

First Lt. Roger Noble, 24, of Turner Air Force Base, Ga., was attempting a landing in rainy, murky weather at Craig AFB. His F84F jet fighter has a 34-foot wing span but he set the ship down in a strip of land about 50 feet wide. He was shaken up. The reason for the emergency landing was not given.

Noble was on a flight from Bergstrom AFB at Austin, Tex. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Noble, Red Cloud, Neb.

Late Rally Leaves Grain Mart Mixed

CHICAGO (P) — Grains closed irregular on the Board of Trade Wednesday.

A late rally canceled or reduced early losses. Dealings were fairly active.

Weakest spot in the market at the finish was new crop wheat, down more than a cent.

The firmest spot was old crop soybeans, although gains were limited to less than a cent.

Wheat closed 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, corn 1/4 lower, oats 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, and soybeans 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher and hard unchained to 7 cents a hundred bushels lower.

Fairly aggressive selling developed at the opening. Brokers attributed this to the optimistic medical report on President Eisenhower. However, there would be no serious administration opposition to restoration of 90 per cent of parity price supports.

New crop wheat futures respond more sensitively to the various possibilities of price support legislation than any other contract.

There is a wide difference between 90 and 76 per cent of parity price support. These months were under the most pressure.

Euro's cold weather attracted a little attention although it did not appear there was much buying on it.

Soybean oil futures raced upward again. Their strength accounted for the turnaround in old crop soybeans. Bean meal futures again declined.

In the spot market bean oil equalled its high of the year at 12 1/2 cents a pound while bean meal set a new low for the year at $48.50 a ton.

Bennington Farmer Has His Own Ag Aid Plan

(Lincoln Star Special)

BENNINGTON, Neb. — Wayland W. Magee, operator of the Summer Hill Farm four miles southwest of here, has come up with his own plan to aid the farmer.

Magee, a well-known Nebraskan, suggests a reduction in both farmers' taxes and crop acreage by making tax-free the land that a farmer takes out of crops.

"The Corn Belt Farmer's troubles," he says, "can be materially helped through a reduction in his taxes and a reduction in the acreage of farm crops, or by a little of both. The politicians have always spent all the tax money they can get hold of — let's cut the supply at the source.

"The farmers must have an inducement to cut crop acreage and so raise crop prices. It is therefore proposed that as an emergency measure the farmer-controlled state legislatures in the surplus crop producing states be induced to enact legislation now which will cut or remit all state and county taxes to farmers who can show, through a certificate of the local assessor, that they have left fallow some land which has been normally put into crop. The assessor makes his round next spring when crops are in.

"For example, a 160-acre farmer who now pays — say $1 per acre tax on his 160 acres and is willing to withdraw 40 acres of his poorest crop land from production, can save $40 in taxes.

"The local assessor, next spring, gives him a certificate showing that he has withdrawn 40 acres from production of crops. The farmer attaches this certificate to his tax statement when he pays his taxes and the credit is then given him as an emergency measure.

Tax Is Cut

"His tax is cut and so is the troublesome surplus of crop. The results to the community would be a curtailed acreage and the attendant cut in the burdensome surplus of farm crops with the consequent rise in prices. The cut in the tax income to the State and County would insure tax officials adjusting their budgets downward.

"No legislation is necessary when the plan is to be disposed of — it is automatic. Crop land will be returned to production when prices rise and the payment of taxes on the land will be resumed. The plan is simple, inexpensive, readily understood and inoffensive in that the government does not interfere with the individual.

"It is timely in that the state legislatures in many agricultural surplus producing states meet this winter. No new office holders are created and its popularity is almost sure with the majority.

"Federal Legislators can bring pressure on states which hold back through federal appropriations."

Magee says "Pass this idea along to your Representatives or Senators if you think it is good and will work. The lawmakers are going to make some new laws anyhow so let us help them put through something constructive."

Local VFW Post Hits Hospital Plan

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 131 following their meeting sent to Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams a protest against any transfer of the Lincoln Veterans Hospital.

The telegram quoted a resolution passed by the post in which the hospital's waiting list was cited and which said the "destiny of many veterans in this area is at stake."

Courthouse 5-Day Week Talk Waits; To Close Feb. 22

The Lancaster County Commissioners by a 2-1 vote approved the closing of the Courthouse on Feb. 22 in observance of Washington's birthday.

Commissioner Del Lienemann, who dissented in the final vote, attempted to amend Chairman Russell Brehm's motion to close to include the policy of setting up a five-day work week beginning March 1.

Brehm opposed this addition "until we have a chance to talk to the other elected officials."

Lienemann had an ally in Commissioner Chris Kuhner, but Kuhner finally seconded the holiday motion made by Brehm with the understanding the five-day week would be discussed soon.

Brehm vetoed a motion for a meeting of the commissioners with the other elected officials yet that day, saying that the five-day policy would be discussed with them next week.

Van Dorn Paving Width Is Argued

Once again, the City Council is faced with the problem of choosing between two recommended widths for a new paving project.

The question this time arises over the paving of Van Dorn from 10th to 48th. The city's department of public works has recommended a 26-foot width while the traffic division and planning engineer recommend a 38-foot width.

The ordinance now pending calls for the 26-foot width but the measure was laid over one week for further study by the Council. A switch from 26 to 38 feet would cost the city an estimated $13,000.
